Iowa State University Weed Science 2015 Field Day

By Mike Owen, Department of Agronomy

The 2015 Weed Science Field Day is scheduled for Thursday, June 25 at the Curtiss Farm at 2219 State Ave. in Ames. The self-guided field day will begin at 8:30 a.m. and is open to the public.

The event hosted by Iowa State University will provide an opportunity to view new innovations in weed management. The event will include research and development industry personnel who will be available to discuss proprietary herbicides.

Refreshments will be available.

Questions about the event can be directed to Mike Owen at 515-294-5936 or mdowen@iastate.edu.

Directions to Curtiss Farm on South State Street: Exit US 30 at University Boulevard and turn south to the first stop sign. Turn right (west) on Oakwood and proceed to the first stop sign which will be a “T” intersection. Turn right (north) on State Street to the Curtiss Farm entrance. Turn left (west) and follow the cinder road to the field day tent.
