

1-1-2017

Community input: how are you planning on staying involved in politics in a non-election year?

Veritas

Follow this and additional works at: <http://lib.dr.iastate.edu/veritas>

Recommended Citation

Veritas (2017) "Community input: how are you planning on staying involved in politics in a non-election year?," Veritas: Vol. 3 : Iss. 1 , Article 5.

Available at: <http://lib.dr.iastate.edu/veritas/vol3/iss1/5>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Iowa State University Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Veritas by an authorized editor of Iowa State University Digital Repository. For more information, please contact digirep@iastate.edu.

The form consists of 15 identical horizontal writing lines. Each line is framed by a decorative border that mimics the stars and stripes of the American flag. The border includes a top red stripe, a row of 20 blue stars, a thin light blue stripe, a bottom red stripe, and a thin light blue stripe at the very bottom. The writing area is the space between the top and bottom red stripes.

COMMUNITY INPUT:

HOW ARE YOU
PLANNING ON
STAYING INVOLVED
IN POLITICS IN A
NON-ELECTION
YEAR?

WILLIAM CHINYAMA
Junior in biology

I have been trying to form a political group or organization with other students for political discourse and I'm still trying.

CARRIE ANN JOHNSON
Graduate student in English

Learn, march, prepare to run or work on a campaign.

BLAISE RONSPIES
Junior in computer engineering

Mostly I am preparing for 2018 elections.

JACOB MARTIN
Graduate student in political science

I plan to continue getting news from a variety of balanced sources and actively dialogue with my elected representatives on issues I deem important.

TAYLOR FERRERE
Junior in animal science and microbiology

Just keep updated on what is going on around me via the news, social media, and other sources that I can listen or look at.

MADISON STRONG
Junior in event management

I don't know if I will, maybe if something big happens in politics I will read about it on the internet, but I sadly won't be an informed enough voter to vote in the smaller elections.

MAX BRUNNER

Sophomore in aerospace engineering

I actively read the news almost every day and keep up with major current events. I frequently debate with my friends and family about political issues and engage in political discourse across different platforms like social media or other conversations. Occasionally, I write to my representatives about issues I care deeply about.

ANTHONY BERTUCCI

Junior in computer engineering

I plan on staying involved by keeping myself informed on current issues, while also ensuring my voice as a constituent is heard by attending local meetings, contacting my state representative, and participating in local political activism on issues that I deem important.

