Summer music festivals

Andrew Clawson
Iowa State University

Follow this and additional works at: http://lib.dr.iastate.edu/revival

Recommended Citation
Available at: http://lib.dr.iastate.edu/revival/vol1/iss1/6
LOOKING FOR SOMETHING FUN TO DO THIS SUMMER? WHAT BETTER WAY TO HAVE FUN THAN TO CHECK OUT SOME NEARBY FESTIVALS, OR BETTER YET, GET A CHANGE OF SCENERY AND HIT THE ROAD FOR SOME GREAT LIVE MUSIC.

-Andrew Clawson

1 BONNAROO

This is a three day music festival that has grown to become one of the largest in the country.

FEATURING

FOR

Just about anyone who enjoys music.

WHEN

June 9th — 12th

WHERE

Manchester, Tennessee

COST

$249.50 for a 4-day festival pass.

www.bonnaroo.com

2 WEFEST

Live country music, small town America, and summertime; with big names like Willie Nelson and Lynyrd Skynyrd, Wefest is everything a country music fan could ever want!

FEATURING

Rascal Flatts, Sugarland, Brad Paisley, Willie Nelson, and Lynyrd Skynyrd.

FOR

Country music fans.

WHEN

August 4th — 6th

WHERE

Detroit Lakes, Minnesota

COST

$59 for a single-day pass; $99 for the 3-day pass.

www.wefest.com

3 LOLLAPALOOZA

This festival is possibly the biggest, most recognizable music festival in the Midwest.

FEATURING

To be announced, check Twitter for updates.

FOR

People who enjoy a variety of music.

WHEN

August 5th — 7th

WHERE

Chicago, Illinois

COST

$90 for a single-day pass; $215 for a 3-day pass.

www.lollapalooza.com
It's Des Moines' very own summer music extravaganza!

Detroit Electronic Music Festival

Detroit is well known for being the birthplace of the automobile. It also happens that Detroit is considered to be the birthplace of techno. Although techno is dead, electronic music is still alive and stronger than ever, and it lives in Detroit!

Featuring

Girl Talk, Edward Sharpe and the Magnetic Zeros, The Poison Control Center, Grace Potter and the Nocturnals and many more.

FOR

Iowans! It wasn’t until recently that our state has been able to attract live music at this level, and with everything from rock, hip hop and local talent there isn’t a reason to miss out on this one.

WHEN

July 2nd — 3rd

WHERE

Des Moines, Iowa

COST

$35 for a single-day pass, $60 for a 2-day pass.

www.80-35.com

---

Mile High Music Festival

The Mile High Music Festival brings big names in music to the Rocky Mountain region.

Featuring

Skrillex, Mimosa, Soul Clap, and Sven Vath.

FOR

Electronic music junkies, Hip hop heads, and indie rockers.

WHEN

August 14th — 15th

WHERE

Denver, Colorado

COST

$110 for a single day pass.

www.milehighmusicfestival.com