So you’re the club secretary . . .
You, and all officers of 4-H groups, are representatives. You represent not only the local group, but the whole 4-H program throughout the state. Your skills and abilities, standards and ideals, grooming, speech, and even smiles represent the Iowa 4-H members. Representing others is one of your most important responsibilities because it exists at all times—not just while you are at the 4-H meetings. Those who are not acquainted with 4-H, judge it by its officers.

Attendance Record

It is the responsibility of the secretary to keep an accurate record of each member’s attendance. During the business meeting the president will ask the secretary to take roll call.

Secretary remains seated and announces how roll call is to be answered, then calls the names of the members. All visitors are then introduced to the group.

The secretary records names of visitors who are present. Mark an X after the name when present and A when absent. Additional information about each member (address, years in 4-H, and grade in school on Sept. 15) have been previously recorded. During the meeting program, the secretary records members who give educational presentations and lead music or recreation.

Practice for Secretaries
Please rewrite the following minutes correctly. Leave out all unnecessary information.

The regular meeting of the Dandy Doers 4-H Group was held at Betty Jones's on September 30, 20__. The meeting was called to order by Tom Thumb at 7:30 p.m. Sue Smith gave a presentation on “Care of Bees.” Jimmy Jones and Paula Potter talked about the football game they went to the night before.

The treasurer's report showed a balance of $174.97. The president really did a crummy job of conducting the meeting. There was no old business. The secretary’s report was read and approved. We discussed paying for leaders to attend the leader's banquet. Our leader Bob Smith was unsure if he could attend so it was tabled to next month. After 30 minutes the meeting was adjourned. Roll call was answered by 14 members, two leaders, and one guest. Amy Jones led us in a conservation activity.

Problems for Secretaries

Problem
At the November meeting the group was discussing the possibility of a Christmas party with another group. Someone remembered having discussed it at the October meeting and having made a motion to have a party. There was nothing in the minutes that indicated this had happened. Then someone else remembered another motion that had not been read in the minutes. There was a lot of confusion. How could this confusion have been avoided?

Solution

Problem
At the regular meeting of the Dandy Doers 4-H Group, there were only four out of 12 members present. A check with members who were absent revealed they didn't know about the meeting. What can you do as group secretary to eliminate this problem?
