CCA Exam Review Course Offered by ISU Extension

By Brent Pringnitz, Agriculture and Natural Resources Extension

Individuals planning to take the Certified Crop Adviser (CCA) exam can attend a two-day Iowa State University (ISU) Extension and Outreach course to prepare for taking the certification exam. During the CCA Exam Review Course, ISU Extension specialists will cover the performance objectives for the exam and focus on areas where students may need additional assistance. Interactive quizzes and a final practice examination will be included in the course.

The CCA Exam Review Course will be held Jan. 9 and 10 in room 150 of the Scheman Continuing Education Building on the ISU campus in Ames. Registration opens at 8 a.m. with classwork beginning at 8:30 a.m. and ending at 3:30 p.m. on Jan. 10. Registration is limited to 60 participants and pre-registration is required. The program brochure and registration form are available on the Web at www.aep.iastate.edu/cca.

The cost of the course is $250. Registration and fees must be received by midnight, Jan. 4. Registrations will not be accepted at the door for this program. The fees include lunches, breaks and a copy of the Crop Diagnostic Notebook.

Registrations can be completed online with a credit card (MasterCard or VISA only). Registrations may also be faxed with a credit card to (515) 294-1311 or be mailed along with a check or credit card information to: ISU ANR Program Services, 2101 Agronomy Hall, Ames, Iowa, 50011-1010. For more information, call (515) 294-6429 or email anr@iastate.edu.
