Archives and Records Association (ARA), UK and Ireland

The ARA's first conference will be held August 31–September 2 in Edinburgh, UK. The association was formed in June 2010 by the merger of the Society of Archivists, National Council on Archives, and the Association of Chief Archivists in Local Government. The conference theme is "Advocating for Archives and Records: The Impact of the Profession in the 21st Century," <http://www.archives.org.uk>.

CREW: Collecting Repositories and E-Records Workshop

As part of the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation-funded AIMS Project ("Born-Digital Collections: An Inter-Institutional Model for Stewardship"), a workshop regarding born-digital archival material in collecting repositories is scheduled for August 23 in Chicago, Illinois, at Hotel Palomar Chicago. The workshop will provide an opportunity for archivists and technologists to discuss issues related to collection development, accessioning, appraisal, arrangement and description, discovery and access, and preservation of born-digital materials. Workshop organizers also hope to provide hands-on opportunities for investigating some of the tools and software that the AIMS Project has used. The workshop is scheduled to coincide with the week of the Society of American Archivists' annual meeting, and it will complement the AIMS Project's special focus session that is part of the SAA meeting program, <http://www2.lib.virginia.edu/aims>.

Mid-Atlantic Regional Archives Conference

The fall meeting is scheduled for October 20–22 at Historic Hotel Bethlehem in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, <http://www.marac.info>.

Museum of Performance & Design, San Francisco

The museum's annual Legacy Oral History Workshop will be held August 4–6. Participants will learn how to plan, organize, and conduct fascinating interviews; use current technologies to produce digital media projects; and prepare oral history texts for printing or publication. The workshop will draw on examples in the performing arts, but is equally appropriate for those involved in institutional history, social history, family history, master's or doctoral studies, or other projects, <http://www.mpdfsf.org/PAGES/PROGRAM/legacyworkshop.html>.

New England Archivists

The fall meeting will take place October 14–15 at Dartmouth College in Hanover, New Hampshire. The focus of the program will be teaching with primary sources and will offer an opportunity to talk about using primary source materials in and outside of the classroom with many different age groups and audiences, <http://www.newenglandarchivists.org/meetings/meetings.html>.

Northeast Document Conservation Center

Upcoming on-line educational opportunities include "Pest Management" on August 9 and a series of Webinars on "Fundamentals of Digitization," <http://www.nedcc.org/education/training.calendar.php>.

Society of American Archivists

The 75th anniversary conference will take place August 22–27 in Chicago, Illinois, at the Hyatt Regency Chicago on the Riverwalk. The theme "Archives 360°" provides an opportunity to step back and take a long look at SAA's accomplishments and challenges. The program will include a sequence of eight sessions devoted to the anniversary celebration and covering the many facets of archives that fall within SAA's scope. These sessions include presentations on the emergence of records management as a profession; early leaders in the archives profession; descriptive standards; reference, access, and outreach; efforts to educate about archives; the roles of regional archives associations; and international women's collections. Pre-conference workshops will be held August 21–23, and the SAA Research Forum will take place on August 23, <http://www2.archivists.org/conference/2011/chicago>.
