

1-1-1960

Five Years Later (Class of 1955)

Ames Forestry Club

Follow this and additional works at: <https://lib.dr.iastate.edu/amesforester>

Part of the Forest Sciences Commons

---

Recommended Citation

Ames Forestry Club (1960) "Five Years Later (Class of 1955)," Ames Forester: Vol. 47 , Article 20.

Available at: <https://lib.dr.iastate.edu/amesforester/vol47/iss1/20>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Journals at Iowa State University Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Ames Forester by an authorized editor of Iowa State University Digital Repository. For more information, please contact digirep@iastate.edu.

Five Years Later

(Class of 1955)

John C. Barrington is an assistant district ranger, in the Mad River District on the Six Rivers National Forest, California. John is married and has two daughters – Noreen, three years, and Jana, one year. He is a member of the Society of American Foresters and the American Forestry Association.

Marvin H. Combs is a district forest ranger on the Bear Valley District of the Boise National Forest, Idaho. He and his wife, Lois have three girls – Chris Ann, five years; Cheryl Jean, four years; and Julie Lynne, one and a half years. Marv's community activities include Secretary to the Emmett, Idaho JayCees; Director Emmett Lion's Club; and leader of the Forestry 4-H Club.

Don A. Collen is a management forester for the State of Washington, Department of Natural Resources, Sedro-Woolley District. Don and his wife, Marlene, have two girls and one boy – Amy, Cindy, and Mark, respectively. Community activities in the summers are rather limited for Don because of fire control work.

Since his graduation, John Evenson has been with Unit Structures, Inc., and his present position there is senior sales engineer. John's wife's name is Noreen, and they have two children – Elizabeth, three years, and Eric, one and a half years. Their home is in Marinette, Wisconsin. John is a deacon of his church and on the church board; he is also an officer in the Peshtigo Sportsmen's Club. He says trout fishing is great in the northern Wisconsin streams.

Dean W. Einspahr is a research assistant for the Institute of Paper Chemistry at Appleton, Wisconsin. He is doing tree-improvement work with soil and site index for aspen and associated species.

Bert Fellows is with the Boise Cascade Corporation in a retail lumber yard in charge of credit. He also is in charge of the paint warehouse for the Boise-Payette Yards in the district. Bert is a board member of the Twin Falls, Idaho JayCees, and a deacon in his church. Bert and his wife Janet have one daughter two years old.

Jack R. Krieger worked with the Forest Service at Oakridge, Oregon, until 1959 when he was transferred to his present position of assistant ranger, Lakes Ranger District, Mt. Hood National Forest near Estucada, Oregon. He and his wife, Ellen, have a son, Douglas, and a daughter, Kelly.

Harry J. Marshall is employed by the Oregon State Board of Forestry, and is in charge of timber management on the Klamath Lake District in eastern Oregon. Harry is unmarried and his activities include church and professional interests.

L. P. Wilhite is a research forester at the Lake City Research Center for the Southwestern Forest Experiment Station. His wife's name is Diane, and they have one child.

Donald J. Morgan is serving as assistant pastor of the First Methodist Church, in Perry, Iowa. Donald is working on graduate work to complete a divinity degree at United Theological Seminary. He is unmarried.

1952 Summer Camp

