He works with REA Co-ops in 35 states. Burkett, Luther B. Presently active in personnel man- age for Region 6, U.S. Forest Service, he says that the Forest Service offers greater latitude and challenge to foresters than most other employers. Moessner, Karl E. He is still working in photogrammetric research at the Intermountain Station. His recent paper, "Estimating Lake Depths from Aerial Photos," won him one of the SAF Talbot Abrams Awards.

M-Kormick, Leighton. Extension Forester for the University of Missouri Extension Division, he recently was host to a group of Extension Foresters from the North Central Region, including Iowa State's Jim Gottsacker.

Dykerhuis, E. J. Has retired from civil service after 30 years with the Forest Service and the Soil Conservation Service, and is now a professor in the Department of Range and Forestry at Texas A & M.

Sack, Ivan. Is Forest Supervisor on the Toiyabe National Forest and serving as an adjunct professor teaching a forestry course at the University of Nevada.

Wilson, John R. Owns the Wilson Industrial Lumber Company at Wheaton, Illinois. John recently enjoyed a reunion with Bill Henry, '39. He also communicated with Hugo Werner, '37, who has sold out his interest in DB & G Machine Company and is contemplating returning to the lumber business. Both John's sons are in college now.

Freelich, John L. Recently took leave from the Forest Preserve District of Cook County, Illinois, to attend 4½ months of Army Command and General Staff College, and was promoted to Colonel in the Army Re- serves.

Haukon, Allan S. Is president of NACSO, and runs GreenTree Forests, a successful Christmas tree busi- ness. Son Lurry, 24, married with three sons, is in his second year of law at the University of Wisconsin.

Tice, Charles C. Resident Engineer, VA Hospital Construction Division, West Allis, Wisconsin. "Mrs. Tice and I returned Thanksgiving from a trip to Tokyo and the Olympics followed by a tour through the Orient. Returned through Manila and Honolulu. To say the least, we had a wonderful time . . . Would like to hear from some of you '39ers."

Benda, Kenneth. Executive Vice-President of Hartwick State Bank and State Senator from the 23rd District, he recently served on the Iowa Governor's Advisory Committee on Outdoor Resources. He toured the facili- ties of Radio Free Europe in Germany last year.

Silker, Ted. An Assistant Professor of silviculture at Ok- lahoma State University, he has a son in forestry who was recently honored as an outstanding freshman. His daughter recently married a BIA forester.

Hoover, Clyde C. Is owner and manager of Forest Prod- ucts, Inc., a flooring and holding concern in Cassville, Missouri. Clyde has been very active in Lions Inter- national and the Ozark section of the Society.

Deinea, Jack. He recently transferred from a person- nel position with the Intermountain Region to the Chief's Office in Washington, D.C., to direct the Divi- sion of Job Corps Administration.

Bauer, Ted. Presently serving Medford, Oregon's Elk Lumber Company as Plywood Sales Manager, he has been busy initiating a marketing program. Ted an- nounces the March arrival of the family's third boy.

Merriam, Robert. Is now in charge of USFS watershed management program in Hawaii, and is intrigued with the watershed and other forestry problems there. Bob spent his first day on the project with Clark Holscher, '37.

Erlich, Glenn. Fire Control Officer for the Bureau of In- dian Affairs at Mescalero, New Mexico, Glenn has been experiencing "the worst fire season in years." He was one of 40 USDI employees selected to attend the 1964 Interebureau Fire School in Redding, California.

Pfister, Robert. Is busily engaged as a research forester at the Intermountain Station. Both he and his wife are continuing their educations part-time. They spend their summers at Deception Creek Experimental For- est, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. "If any Iowa Staters pass this way the welcome mat is always out.

Pierce, Edwin C. Is a lawyer in Akron, Ohio. He gradu- ated from Akron University this June and passed his bar exam in July. His wife is nearing completion of her masters in European history.

Kesselring, Ron. A sales analyst for Unit Structures of Koppers Company in northern Wisconsin, Ron was married in June, 1964. He's working in the same of- fice with Clark Mitchell, '64, and has been enjoying plenty of skiing and duck hunting.
