FOREWORD

The growth of forestry in the "home state" should be of interest to both alumni and students. From the Forestry Department the paths lead in many directions. In our diversified profession, graduates find challenge, satisfaction, and a continuation of the learning process. To closer ties among students, faculty, and alumni, the cause of forestry in Iowa, and the success of the individual forester, the members of the 1972 staff have pledged their efforts.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Ames Forester is grateful to all those who have helped make this publication possible. We deeply appreciate the financial support of our patrons and advertisers. The help and advice of Mr. Dean Prestemon, our faculty advisor, and Mr. Donald Basart of Art Press, Inc. were invaluable. We are further indebted to the faculty members, students, and other individuals who offered help and suggestions.

THE COVER

The staff is grateful to Sue Pisarik of Iowa State University for her work in developing the cover. The cover depicts various activities of the Fall Foresters' Day.
