1924

Who's There and Where

Pearl Harris
Iowa State College

Follow this and additional works at: http://lib.dr.iastate.edu/homemaker

Part of the Home Economics Commons

Recommended Citation
Harris, Pearl (1924) "Who's There and Where," The Iowa Homemaker: Vol. 4 : No. 11 , Article 9.
Available at: http://lib.dr.iastate.edu/homemaker/vol4/iss11/9

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Student Publications at Iowa State University Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Iowa Homemaker by an authorized editor of Iowa State University Digital Repository. For more information, please contact digirep@iastate.edu.
Who's There and Where

By Pearl Harris

Mortar Board Alumnae Here

Several alumnae members of Mortar Board were on the campus February 7 for the installation ceremonies of National Mortar Board, which then entered an Agricultural college for the first time. Among the girls who were here for initiation were: Ann Hopkins, who is supply teacher in the Des Moines Public Schools; Pauline May, who is teaching at Alden, Iowa; Marie Van Cleve, teaching at Shenandoah; Ethel Helmsberg, who has been in Detroit but is now teaching in Burlington; Adah Herring, who has been dietitian in Iowa Lutheran Hospital at Des Moines but is now at home in Perry; Maida Heiner, who is teaching at Alden, Iowa; Marie Van Dellen, who is teaching at Ottumwa; Nita Comstock Reese, who is living in Cincinnati, Iowa; Esther Yungclas, of Webster City; and Graha Thorne, who is teaching at Colo.

Dean Anna Richardson who was a member of the local group at the University of Texas which has recently been granted a charter of Mortar Board was also initiated with the local group here. Miss Busse of the home economics faculty was also initiated at this time.

Marion Jacklin '23 of Des Moines and C. L. Benner '23 were married early in November. Mr. Benner previously was a member of the agricultural economics faculty and is at present employed at the Institute of Economics, Jackson Place, Wash.

Mable Campbell '10, who is with the federal board of vocational education, has charge of home economics education in the western half of the United States. She spent the holidays in Ames with her parents. On Jan. 16, she was initiated into Omicron Nu.

The death of Lydia Brown Hips '60 occurred at Shanghai, China, on Dec. 20. She taught music in China and later taught at Oberlin previous to her marriage to Prof. J. R. Hips, dean of the Baptist School of Religious Education at Shanghai.

Word has been received of the marriage of Edna Beebe '24 to Mr. T. P. Cherry of Woodbine, Iowa, on February 1. They will be at home after March first at Logan, Iowa, where Mr. Cherry, who is county engineer, has his headquarters.

Lola Placeway Bennett '95 was married to Reverend Pearson, a Presbyterian minister of Orange, California, on December 8, 1924.

Mary Hastings, who graduated at the end of the fall quarter is teaching Home Economics at Waterville.

At Muscatine last September occurred the marriage of Ruth Hook '24 of Strathford, Iowa, and Charles Everett '24 of Moline, Illinois. The marriage was kept secret until the holidays. Mrs. Everett is teaching in the consolidated school at Dike and Mr. Everett is with the John Deere Flour Company of Moline.

Iva Brandt '06 of the Home Economics faculty, who is on a year's leave of absence, spent some time during the holidays in Philadelphia doing special research work. She is now working for her master's degree at the Prince school which is connected with Simmons College in Boston.

Elda Lord Murphy '22 is soon to leave Constantinople where she has been doing work in home economics. Her engagement has been announced to Benjamin Garrison Demarest, a lawyer of New York and Montclair, New Jersey.

Estella Buffington '16, who took her master of science degree from Ann Arbor, is laboratory technician at Lying Inn hospital, Stuyvesant Square and Second Ave., New York City.

To Faith Furman Renner Ex '24 and Kenneth M. Renner '21 was born a baby boy on November 26. Mr. Renner is an instructor in Dairy Husbandry at the Kansas State College.

Edna Fry '15 is now in charge of the Sunflower Tea Room in Syracuse, N. Y. Miss Fry has had this position for two and one half years and finds the East very much to her liking.

Walter W. Howell '24 and Berdina Ruth Fotsch, Ex '26 were married at Davenport, Iowa, on Dec. 24. They are at home at 1646 E. 13th Ave., Denver.

Florence J. Pettinger '07, who is in the subscription department of Life at New York City, reports an Ames alumni dinner and get-together meeting there.

Bertha Wellington is working with the Extension Department in Michigan. At present she is teaching twenty nutrition classes for mothers in the state.

Helen Gilmore, who took her student dietitian training at Mt. Sinai Hospital, New York City, is staying on as assistant dietitian for another year.

On June 29 occurred the marriage of Joy Lewis '24 and J. D. Hayes '22. They are now living on a farm near Toledo, Iowa.

Marie Young '16 is now superintendent of home economics and in charge of the school cafeteria at Muskegon, Michigan.

The Fred B. Smith Meetings

At the annual religious meetings Friday morning, at which time Mr. Smith spoke on "Fundamental Education," in this address he urged all students to stick by college no matter how hard the task seemed to be. "Moral Robbery," "Is America a Great Nation," and the "Fruits of Religion" were the topics of his other addresses, which he delivered to large crowds of students, faculty, and Ames people. Several luncheons were held for the speaker during his stay at Ames, among them being a student luncheon Saturday noon.

Mr. Smith's time between meetings was open to students and groups of students who wished conferences with him.

Millie Kalsem '20 is dietitian at the Iowa Methodist Hospital in Des Moines. Miss Busse introduced her recently to the sophomores at technical lecture where she spoke for a short time about her work.

Louise Stratbucker '15, who has been in the Old World, has now returned to the States and is residing at 113 Crescent Ave., Louisville, Ky.

Helen Haus '18, who is now teaching for the third consecutive year at Cale­­donia, Minnesota, was a campus visitor during the holidays.

On January 5 at St. Luke's Hospital, a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Spangler of Chicago. Mrs. Spangler was Dorothy Dodds '15.

Elizabeth L. Deacon was married on August 30 to W. A. Sellers and is now living at 32 E. Walnut Lane, Germantown, Pennsylvania.

Lois G. Stephens '20 has charge of the cafeteria of the Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph Company at 1421 Champa, Denver.

Lottie Ward Wangert '15 announces the birth of Marilyn Ruth on Thanksgiving morning. She is now residing at Las Vegas, Nevada.

Gladys Dodge '21 is dietitian at the Cottage Hospital at Santa Barbara, California.

Olla V. Johnson '16 is a professor of Home Economics at Illinois Wesleyan.

Louise Buchanan '15 is teaching at Central High School in Omaha.