Junior Student Victim of Auto Crash in Colorado

On June 30, 1960, the Class of '62 lost a true friend and colleague in a tragic auto accident near Estes Park, Colorado. Charles Steele who was working for the summer as a taxi driver was on his way home from work when his car left the road and was demolished. He died en-route to a Denver, Colorado hospital.

Charles Steele, 22, was the only son of Mrs. Geraldine Steele, Home Economist of Wright County, Iowa. He was born in Wisconsin and grew up in Lake Park, Iowa. He graduated from the Lake Park High School in 1955 and entered Iowa State University the same year. He completed three years of Pre. Vet. work at Iowa State University and entered the College of Veterinary Medicine in 1958. He had completed two years of the professional curriculum at the time of his death.

Charles was known as "Chuck" by his many friends at I.S.U. Always an excellent student, Chuck was known for his interest in and willingness to give of himself to his friends. The loss of his energetic and happy personality is felt by all his classmates.

Charles Steele '62

As a tribute to Chuck, the Class of '62 and friends are establishing a memorial endowment fund. The Charles Steele Memorial Fund will be administered by the Alumni Achievement Fund at Iowa State University. An award of not less than $25.00 will be awarded each year to a sophomore veterinary student at I.S.U. who is of good moral and professional character, who has contributed most to the welfare of his classmates and who shows real professional merit through his attitude and personality. Each selection will be determined by the Honors and Awards Committee, College of Veterinary Medicine, Iowa State University.

Record Attendance At Fall Banquet

Good food, fine entertainment and an excellent speech were the high-lights of the Thirteenth Annual Fall Banquet attended by Student A.V.M.A. members, faculty of the College of Veterinary Medicine, and guests from other veterinary medical units in the area, including the new National Disease Laboratory located northeast of Ames. Burton T. Wolf was general chairman and master of ceremonies of banquet held in Great Hall, Memorial Union, Iowa State University, on Sept. 22, 1960.

Mr. Wolf '61, welcomed the members and guests, and as always, provided the group with an entertaining array of short stories that added much to the congeniality of the yearly occasion.

Following the introduction of the class representatives by Charles Haight, president of the Iowa State University Student Chapter of the American Veterinary Medical Association, Dean I. A. Merchant introduced the Veterinary Medical Staff and other departmental staff members in the college.

The speaker of the evening was Dr. Carl A. Brandly, dean of the College of Veterinary Medicine at the University of Illinois. Dr. Brandly's speech, excellent in context and informative value, dealt with the topic of veterinary research. This interesting and increasingly important topic was received particularly well by the students, as it is a subject seldom discussed during the regular meetings.

Dean I. A. Merchant presented a $300 Borden Scholarship award for an outstanding academic record to Robert Glock of the senior class. This award is given to the student with the highest scholastic record at the end of 3 years in veterinary medicine.

After much discussion and debate, the amended annual budget of $1,500 was approved. This budget called for dues of $4.00, the lowest dues to be paid since the 1956-1957 school year.

General massage of puppies stimulates circulation and is a helpful form of passive exercise but it should be the responsibility of one person and limited to a few minutes several times a day. Whining and squirming of puppies may indicate chilling. The heat regulating mechanism in new born pups is poorly developed and the mortality of those which become chilled may be high.
