The drawing for door prizes was held at 11:30 p.m. The winners were as follows:

1st prize—Silva ranger compass—Mark Rediger
2nd prize—Buck knife—Bruce Erickson
3rd prize—LP gas stove—Les Miller
4th prize—Fluorescent lantern—Michelle Nummela

The evening was a great success. Everyone enjoyed the great weather and the snow that had finally fallen.

Christmas Caroling

by Anita Montag

In the continuation of a recently established tradition, various Forestry club members braved the winds and bitter cold on December 13 to serenade the Forestry Department staff with Christmas cheer.

Not only did we raise our voices in song but we also staged the opportunity for John Jennett to lock Dr. and Mrs. Hopkins out of their own home. Next, imagine standing in that same wind and bitter cold singing—to an empty house and an empty apartment, thrilling isn't it? Yet the most unexpected pleasure was a visit by the infamous reindeer, Karl Krech, (Hey, Karl! when did you grow the antlers?).

However, those who did brave the elements were well rewarded. Following our singing tour of Ames, the warmth and hospitality of Dr. Manwiller’s home was enjoyed by all. The goodies, punch and especially the hot chocolate were consumed heartily. More caroling followed and we were joined by the golden voice of Dr. Thomson. For those of you who didn’t participate, you missed a good time. We hope to hear you singing next Christmas.
