1989

Alumni

Follow this and additional works at: https://lib.dr.iastate.edu/iowastate_veterinarian

Part of the Higher Education Commons, and the Veterinary Medicine Commons

Recommended Citation

Available at: https://lib.dr.iastate.edu/iowastate_veterinarian/vol51/iss2/17

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Journals at Iowa State University Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Iowa State University Veterinarian by an authorized editor of Iowa State University Digital Repository. For more information, please contact digirep@iastate.edu.
Alumni

Class of 1959

Dr. John O. McNellis is an active small animal practitioner in West Orange, New Jersey. He received his M.P.H. from the University of Minnesota in 1964. He is a Diplomate of the American College of Veterinary Preventive Medicine. Dr. McNellis was a Major in the U.S. Army Veterinary Corps for nine years and in addition is a member of the AVMA, NJVMA and the Metropolitan NJVMA. Dr. McNellis and his wife, Bruni, have one son, Russell 15.

Class of 1969

Richard W. Baird is practicing large animal medicine in Kewanee, IL. He and his wife, Deanna, have two daughters, Jill and Shannon.

Ronald A. Batz practices in a small animal mobile clinic. He and his wife Nancy live in Sioux Falls, S.D. and have three children; Paul, Heidi, and Leise. Dr. Batz is a member of IVMA, AVMA, S.D. VMA, Kiwanis, Elks, and Moose Clubs.

Earl J. Goerdt is practicing in a mixed clinic but focusing on large animal medicine. Dr. Goerdt and his wife, Carol, live in Dyersville, IA with their four children; Amy, Matthew, Joseph, and Kimberly.

Donald C. Holst is active in a small animal practice with his associate Mark Kovacs (ISU 83). Dr. Holst is a member of AVMA, the Chicago Vet. Med. Association, and past president of the Palatino Kiwanis. He also owns his own travelogue business. Dr. Holst and his wife Merilee (ISU 68) live in Lake Zunich, IL.

Gene W. Hoy practices at the Richland Veterinary Clinic in Richland, IA. Dr. Hoy is a member of the AVMA, IVMA, and a board member of the IVMA Bovine Practitioners Committee of Eastern Iowa. He and his wife Linda have four children; Jill, Michael, David, and Daniel.

Allen G. Ibsen practices small animal medicine at the New Berlin Animal Hospital, LTD.. Dr. Ibsen and his associates Raymond H. Backe (Purdue 66), Claire Rojohn II (ISU 84), and Sheila Megan (ISU 86) are located in New Berlin, Wisconsin. He is a member of the Wisconsin VMA, AAHA AVMA, and Waukesha VMA, past presidents of Milwaukee VMA and New Berlin Rotary and recipient of the Paul Harris Fellowship Award. Dr. Ibsen and his wife Kristin Mary have two daughters, Jennifer Ann and Julie Marie.

James M. Jorgenson is active in a small animal practice in Vernon Hills, Illinois. He has maintained membership in the AVMA and ISVMA and has served as President of the Lake County Veterinary Medical Association. Dr. Jorgenson and his wife Pamela have three children: Matthew, Adam, and Jacob.

Ronald G. King practices at the Clinton Veterinary Clinic in Clinton, WI with his associates Arthur Mueller (IL 76), Roy Ibeling (ISU 77), Jeff Stevens(IL 77), Larry Hagahter (Pur 82), Janet Gildner (WI 88). Dairy medicine is the primary focus of his practice. Dr. King is a member of AVMA, AABP, WI Vet. Med. Assoc., Legislative committee and Program Committee of WVMA, and the past presidents of American Baptist Men of WI and the Kiwanis club. Dr. King and his wife Lila have two children, Jana and Reginald.

Gene L. Koski is active in a small animal practice in Norbrook, Illinois with his partner, Dr. Gregory S. Stram (ISU 85). Dr. Koski previously served on the Board of Directors and as Public Relations Committee Chairman in the Chicago VMA Judicial Committee, the Illinois State VMA, AVMA, and AAHA. He has also served as President of the Board of Trustees of Prospect Heights Community Church. Dr. Koski and his wife, Wendy have three children: Kimberli, Doreen, and Denise.

Kenneth R. Liska resides in Wayne, Nebraska and is active in a mixed animal practice with partners J. J. Liska (brother, ISU '61) and David Swerezek (KSU '69). Dr. Liska has served as President of the Interstate Veterinary Medical Association and Nebraska Veterinary Medical Association. He has been Lt. Governor and local club president of the Kiwanis Club, an elder in the Presbyterian Church, and a volunteer fireman. He has also served on the local school board, on the Board of Zoning Adjustment and in the Chamber of Commerce. Dr. Liska and his wife Jan have three children: Jason, Eric, and Kim.

Larry L. Lounsbery is active in a large animal practice in South Dakota with partner Michael Patrick (KSU '86). Dr. Lounsbery is a past member of the Nebraska VMA, and a current member of the South Dakota VMA, AVMA, AABP, and AASP. He has served on the South Dakota PRV Eradication Committee, on the Union Co. Fair Board (as president), in the Chamber of Commerce and in the Lions Club, and has been a Sunday school teacher and deacon at his church. Dr. Lounsbery and his wife Lois have two children: Jason and Stephanie.

S. J. Mead resides in Storm Lake, Iowa where he is active in a mixed (predominantly large) animal practice with partner, Dr. W. C. Pewsey (ISU '59). Dr. Mead is a member of the local Coon Valley Veterinary Association, IVMA, AVMA, and AASP. He and his wife Jo have three children: Josh, Marla, and David.

John L. Peters is active in a mixed animal practice (90% beef cow-calf and swine) in Mount Ayr, IA with partner Dr. Max McKus (ISU 69). Dr. Peters was a member of the US Army Veterinary Corps from 1969-71 and in 71 joined the practice in Mount Ayr. He and his wife Dianna have two children: Amy Ann (ISU) and Richard.

Francis R. Pisarik is active in a small animal practice in Kenosha, WI, with associates James Nordstrom (65 MN), William Carlisle (80 ISU), Bob Reynolds (78 IL), and William Janecke (86 ISU). He has been involved in the Southeast Tri-County Vet. Med. Assoc., WI State Assoc., AVMA, Kiwanis, Humane Society, and Little League. Dr. Pisarik and his wife, Teri, have three children, Jason, Ryan, and Craig.

Kenneth R. Liska resides in Wayne, Nebraska and is active in a mixed animal practice with partners J. J. Liska (brother, ISU '61) and David Swerezek (KSU '69). Dr. Liska has served as President of the Interstate Veterinary Medical Association and Nebraska Veterinary Medical Association. He has been Lt. Governor and local club president of the Kiwanis Club, an elder in the Presbyterian Church, and a volunteer fireman. He has also served on the local school board, on the Board of Zoning Adjustment and in the Chamber of Commerce. Dr. Liska and his wife Jan have three children: Jason, Eric, and Kim.

Merril Reinhiller: is a small animal practitioner based in Moorhead, Minnesota. He is an active in a mixed animal practice with Dr. Mike Harvey (ISU '84), Dr. Time Whalen (KSU '79) and Dr. Dana Dane (UM '86) Dr. Reinhiller is member of the North Dakota VMA, the Minnesota VMA and the AVMA. He and his wife Noell have two sons, Tom, 25 and Greg, 19.

Leon Schnack: is practicing small animal medicine at the Lyndale Animal Hospital in Minneapolis, Minnesota. His associates are Dr. Ed Clausman (ISU '68) and Dr. Curt McDougall (ISU '69). Dr. Schnack and his wife Mary Kay have two sons Derek and Andy.

Jon T. Seeger: is active as a small animal practitioner and as a food animal consultant at the McLean County Veterinary Clinic. Dr. Seeger is member of the AVMA and North Dakota VMA of which he is past president. Dr. Seeger and his wife Kathleen have two children, Christopher and Keri Ann. They live in Turtle Lake, North Dakota.

W.J. Sturtz: is a mixed animal practitioner in Maquoketa, Iowa along with his associates, Dr. R.G. Nutsch (KSU '83) and Dr. J.E. Beranek (ISU '69). He has been president of the Jackson County VMA. Dr. Sturtz and his wife Linda have two children, Darci, 20 and Tyler, 15.

William M. Sorenson: is a mixed animal practitioner in Aberdeen, South Dakota along with Dr. Robin K. Nelson (ISU '80). He and his wife Elizabeth have two sons, Martin, 30 and Matthew, 27. They also have three grandchildren.

James J. Tapper: owns and is sole practitioner at a small animal clinic in Newport Beach, California. Previous to this he practiced in Omaha, Nebraska and North Bend, Oregon. He is active in a high school Model United Nations Program and was named 1988 Citizen of the Year at Huntington Beach High School.
Dr. Tapper is also a member of the AVMA, CVMA, AAHA, the California Academy of Veterinary Practitioners, and the California Veterinary Dental Society. Dr. Tapper and his wife, Theresa have two daughters, Jamesina, 18 and Jessica, 16.

Kenneth J. Throlson: is currently running the Kenmar Buffalo Ranch at New Rockford, North Dakota. Previous to that he was in practice for 15 years. He is the American Bison Associations Northern Director and their delegate to the USAHA. Dr. Throlson and his wife Marlys have six children: Trent, 22, Scott, 20, Lena, 19, Lynnae, 17, Kent, 12 and LeAnn, 10.

Larry Patrick Tilley: is president of Cardiopet Transtelephonic Electrocardiography in Roslyn, New York and a staff consultant for the Department of Cardiology at the Animal Medical Center in New York, New York. He is a member of numerous professional societies and is a Diplomate of the American College of Veterinary Internal Medicine. Following graduation from ISU in 1969, Dr. Tilley did an internship (69-70) in medicine and surgery at the Animal Medical Center in New York, then a residency in Medicine (70-71) and finally a residency in cardiology (71-72) before becoming head of the Department of Cardiology, a position he held until September of 1980. Dr. Tilley has authored many journal publications, book chapters and textbooks over the years. In 1979 he received the Outstanding Young Alumnus recognition, National Gamma Award from the Omega Tau Sigma fraternity in 1986, the 1986 Merit Award from the VMA of New York City, was a co-fund raiser for Heifer Project International, received the 1987 Outstanding Service to Veterinary Medicine Award and the 1988 Stange Award from Iowa State University. Dr. Tilley currently resides in Roslyn, New York.

Class of 1979

Dr. Stephen O. Abel is currently active in a three partner dairy and small animal practice in Oneida, New York. He was accredited in veterinary acupuncture by the IVAS in 1985 and for the past two years has served as the secretary-treasurer of the central New York VMA. He and his wife Tanna have four children: Ryan(13), Taylor(11), Christian(9), and Erin(6).

Dr. Doreen M. Acuff is currently practicing as a solo small animal veterinarian in East Setauket, New York. She is active in the New York State Veterinary Society, the Long Island Veterinary Society and acts as the Veterinarian for the League for Animal Protection in Huntington, New York. She and her husband Virgil have one son Adam, age six.

Dr. Stephen H. Amsberry is presently active as a small animal veterinarian in North Bend, Oregon. Here, he is joined in practice by Dr. Margie Ryan (Ore '85). Dr. Amsberry has been active on state and local veterinary association committees as well as taking an active role in community activities. Dr. Amsberry and his wife Kristi R. have four children: Stephanie(9), Christian(7), Annie(5), and Ethan(3).

Dr. Mark P. Anhalt is active in a mixed veterinary practice. He and his wife Kim are living in Armada, Michigan.

Dr. James D. Appleton is currently practicing as a small animal veterinarian in Victorville, California. He is joined in practice by Dr. Julie McClaine (Davis '87) and Dr. Jeff Isaacson (Kansas '87). Dr. Appleton is also active in both the AVMA and the CVMA. He and his wife Chris are kept busy at home with their twins Keith and Katie (2) and two other children, Kevin (6) and Holly (5).

Dr. Ron Brodersen is presently active in a solo swine practice in Hartington, Nebraska. His professional activities include membership in the AASP, the Nebraska Pork Producers, the Nebraska swine Enterprise Records Advisory Committee, and the Nebraska VMA where he serves on the CE and Disease Control Committees. He and his wife Joan were married in 1982.

Dr. Kay Burkhart is currently active in a mixed animal practice. She and her husband Don live in Luverne, Minnesota.

Dr. John Caltabiano is practicing in Old Lyme, Connecticut. He is active in both the Connecticut VMA and the AVMA.

Dr. Deborah D. Davis is currently practicing as a small animal veterinarian in an eight veterinarians practice in Texas. She is active in the AVMA, the Dallas County VMA and the Pekingese Club of Texas. At home she is joined by five Pekingese dogs and one cat and may be seen at the local dog shows holding an occasional blue ribbon.

Mark A. Dominick is currently employed by Park Davis Pharmaceutical research Division of the Warner-Lambert Co. in Ann Arbor, MI. He holds the position of group leader of pathology working group I in the area of toxicologic pathology. He and his wife, Sally Anne, have two children; Joseph, 7, and Kathryn, 3. Since graduation, Dr. Dominick has received a MS in veterinary toxicology in 1982, a PhD in veterinary pathology in 1984 at ISU, and was board certified in veterinary pathology in 1985. He is a member of the AVMA, ACVP, the Society of Toxicologic Pathologists, and is an Associate Member of the American Academy of Veterinary and Comparative Toxicology.

Robert Foss is the owner of a small animal hospital in West Des Moines, IA. He and his wife, Lisa, have three children; Molly,8, Jonathan,5, and Deborah, 1 1/2. Dr. Foss is a past president of the Greater Des Moines Veterinary Medical Association, a public relations board member of the IVMA, a member of the AVMA, and also a board member of the Animal Emergency Clinic, P.G. His associate, Sarah Lagan, is a 1988 ISU graduate.

J. Christian Franson is employed as a wildlife veterinarian for the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Services in Madison, Wisconsin. Dr. Franson has one daughter, Laura, age 14. He is a member of the Wildlife Disease Assoc., and the American Health Assoc. of Wildlife Veterinarians.

Gary D. Gacksetter continues to be active in a public health practice for the US Air Force while being involved in small animal relief work. Having been in the Air Force since graduation, he is currently competing for a promotion to Lt. Col.. In addition, the Air Force funded a master's in public health from Boston University and will fund a doctorate in epidemiology from the U of Minnesota in the Fall of '89. Dr. Gacksetter is also an ACVPM Diplomate. He and his wife, Jeanne, and their two children, Katie and John, plan to move from Colorado Springs to Washington, D.C..

Meg J. Glatty has been active in a small animal practice in Richfield, Mn., since 1980. Her associates are Robert Dietl (U of Minn '66), Tom Wanous (U of Minn '59), and Daniel Heiden (ISU '67). She and her husband, Austin McDevitt, were married in 1984. They have two children, Alana and Seamus. Dr. Glatty is a member of MVMA, MAHA, AAHA, and the AVMA. In 1983 and '84, she volunteered relief work at the Minnesota Zoo.

Jim Hagedorn is active in a small animal practice with his associates Paul Leonard (ISU '77), Bob Fox (U of Illinois '83), Mary Baukert (U of Ill '77), and Tameraa Rahn (U of Ill '77). He is a Diplomate American Board of Veterinary Practitioners 1985 with a companion animal specialty. Presently he is secretary of the Chicago Veterinary Medical Assoc., as well as being on the credentials committee for ABVP. Additional activities include the Administrative Board of the First United Methodist Church and memberships in AVMA, AAHA, CVMA, ISVMA, and Illinois Academy of Veterinary Medicine. He and his wife, Susan, make their home in Evanston, Illinois.

Daniel G. Huiskamp is active in a predominantly large animal and mixed animal practice in Cresco, Iowa, with two associates: Kenneth Moellers (ISU '76), and David Wilgenbush (ISU '73). Dr. Huiskamp is a member of the AVMA, IVMA, and Bovine Practitioners. He serves as Treasurer of the First Congregational Church in Cresco and is a Board Member and President of the Cresco Industrial Development Corporation. Dr. Huiskamp and his wife, Juliana, have two children: Kelly (6 yrs.) and Payne (2 yrs.).

Sharon I. Hurley is active in a small animal practice in New Ulm, Mn.. Dr. Hurley is married to her associate, Dr. David W. Linn (ISU '79). She is chairperson of the Minnesota State Board of Animal Health and on the Board of Examiners for the State Veterinary Technicians. Dr. Hurley is also a Rotary Club Member and Treasurer and on the Board of Directors for the Local Big Brother-Big Sister organization.

Joseph A. Jedlicka is active in a large animal practice in Cascade, Iowa, with his two associates: Thomas H. White (ISU), and John W. Hallberg (ISU). Dr. Jedlicka is a member of the Dubuque County Extension Council and the Jones County DU. He and his wife, Candace, have two sons; Justin, 4 years, and Brett, one year.

Leonard D. Jonas is active in small animal medicine and dermatology in Denver, Colorado. Dr. Jonas has served an internship at Animal Medical Center and completed a residency at Colorado State University in Small Animal Internal Medicine. He received his Master's Degree in 1983 and Diplomate ACVIM in 1987. Dr. Jonas is a member of the AVMA, Colorado VMA, Denver VMA, Academy of Veterinary Allergy, ACVIM, Academy of Veterinary Dermatology, Society for Comparative Endocrinology, ISUVMAA, and AAHA.

Kimo K. Jow is co-owner of an active small animal practice in Auburn, Washington. He practices with co-owner Dr. Eric E. Schneider (WSU '74) and with emergency staff members Dr. Michael Brown (WSU '77) and Dr. Cathy Corrigan (WSU '85). Dr. Jow established the “After Hours Animal Emergency Clinic” in his hospital, a 24-hour clinic that handles emergency cases from the surrounding Seattle and Tacoma areas. He is Hospital Director of and AAHA Hospital and is a member of the WSVMA and AVMA. He is also active in the Kiwanis Club of Auburn and in a local church, and has served in the US Chamber of Commerce. Dr. Jow and his wife, Anita, have three children: Tiffany (5), Jonathan (3), and Timothy (born 6-11-89).

Kenton Kreager is the Director of the Technical Service for Hy-Line International at Dallas Center, Iowa. Dr. Kreager and his wife, Anne, have two sons: Bradley (7 yrs), and Benjamin (3 yrs).

David W. Linn is active in dairy herd health and nutrition in New Ulm, Mn.. Dr. Linn is married to his associate Sharon L. Hurley (ISU ’79). He is a member of the MVMA Insurance Board, Chair of UCC Church Council, and Boy Scouts District Council. Dr. Linn also does nutrition counseling and speaking.

Mary Lynn Neumeister is active in a small animal practice in Dubuque, IA. Dr. Neumeister has two associates: her husband, Maurice Docton (OSU ’78), and her father, William C. Neumeister (ISU 51).

Gregory S. Schmitt is active in a large animal practice in Cumberland, IA. Dr. Schmitt and his wife, Karen, have four children: Megan (10), Teri (8), Jedediah (6), and Marielle (1).

Dean Severidt is active in a mixed practice in Marshalltown, IA where he does the small animal work. His associate is T.W. Speas (ISU 58). Dr. Severidt is a member of the IVMA, AVMA, AAHA, Kiwanis, Board of Directors for the Marshall County Cyclone Club, and is involved in the Lutheran Church. He and his wife, Kindera, have three children; Nicholas (7), Justin (5), and Jessica (5 months).

Matthew E. Sexton is active in large animal practice at the Readlyn Veterinary Service with his two associates: Patrick Sexton (ISU 80) and Phil Jardon (ISU 86). He is a member of the AABP, IVMA, and WVMA. Dr. Sexton has one son, Timothy (8).

Randal M. Shirbroun is active in a mixed, primarily large animal practice in Coon Rapids, IA, with his associate Richard E. Shirbroun (ISU 52). Dr. Shirbroun is a member of the AVMA, IVMA, AASP, past chairman of IVMA Swine Pract. Committee, IVMA Pract. Management Committee, 4-H leader, County Youth Committee Chairman, Kiwanis member and past president, Nursing Home board trustee, Sunday School teacher, and assistant high school volleyball coach. Dr. Shirbroun and his wife, Chris, have two children: David (10) and Rebecca (7). Chris is a registered nurse and director of nurses.

Richard L. Sibbel works in industry where he is the Manager for Professional Services for Diamond Scientific. In 1988, Dr. Sibbel was part of the Veterinary School Speaking Tour where he presented data in support of a new FeLV vaccine. He and his wife, Kathryn, have two children: Scott (8) and Amy Jo (5).

Nick J. Striegel is active in a small animal practice in Fargo, ND, with his associate Dr. Daniel Treat (U of MN 71). Dr. Striegel and his wife Leslie have five children; Drew (11), Natalie (10 1/2), Matt (10), Mara (10), and Nick (8
Jay E. Stuart is active in a mixed practice in Grundy Center, IA with associate, Don A. Buchanan (ISU 51). He is a member of the AVMA, IVMA, Eastern Iowa and Cedar Valley VMA, a member of the local Methodist church and administrative board, and Rotary Club president. Dr. Stuart and his wife, Alice, have one daughter, Lauren (1 1/2). Alice is a registered pharmacist.

Thomas B. Ulrickson is practicing in a mixed animal clinic with a primary interest in large animal medicine. His associates at the Albia Animal Clinic in Albia, IA are Howard Lindamun (71) and Dean Stocker (60). Dr Ulrickson and his wife Susan have three children; Amy (14), Molly (10), and John (7).

David D Whitney is co-owner of the Noyes Animal Hospital, Inc. in Barrington, IL. He and his associate Jack Noyes (IL 59) have a practice consisting of 6 DVMs and three clinics. Dr. Whitney is a member of AVMA, AAHA, IL State VMA, board member of Chicago VMA, past president of the Midwest Small Animal Assoc., and Area Director of AAHA for IA and IL. Dr. Whitney and his wife Lorraine have two children; Lauren (5), and Daniel (2).

---

ISU SCAVMA Symposium Fundraising

Hats   Red corduroy w/ ISU Vet Med Emblem .......................... $10.00 each
       $18.00 for 2

Mugs   Ivory w/ ISU Vet Med Emblem ........................................... $7.50 each
       $12.00 for 2

Scrub Tops w/ ISU Vet Med Emblem on pocket ...................... $10.00 each
       Jade, Burgandy, Blue, White
       XL, L, Med, Sm, WSm
       limited supply  50/50
       $17.00 for 2

T-Shirts Mock Vet Lab Coat (complete with stethoscope, otoscope, scissors, Pet-Tabs, kitten and puppy in pocket, etc.)
       White  50/50
       Adult XL, L, M, S ........................................... $12.00 each
       $20.00 for 2

       Child L, M, S ........................................... $10.00 each
       $16.00 for 2

Write: SCAVMA
ISU Vet Med
Iowa State University
Ames, IA 50011

Call: (515) 296-7285