2000

Alumni News

Follow this and additional works at: https://lib.dr.iastate.edu/iowastate_veterinarian

Part of the Higher Education Commons, and the Veterinary Medicine Commons

Recommended Citation
Available at: https://lib.dr.iastate.edu/iowastate_veterinarian/vol62/iss2/14

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Journals at Iowa State University Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Iowa State University Veterinarian by an authorized editor of Iowa State University Digital Repository. For more information, please contact digirep@iastate.edu.
Class of 1970

Lawrence Arp is a pharmaceutical consultant in Boulder, Colorado. He was a professor of veterinary pathology at ISU from 1982 to 1992; Director of Pathology at Hoffman-La Rouche Inc. from 1992 to 1998; and is now Senior Division Manager and Experimental Pathologist at Milestone Biomedical Consultants. His family includes his wife, Rosemary, and their two children, Chris and Tim.

George Balster is the hospital director of Bethany Animal Hospital in Sycamore, Illinois. He is involved in Kiwanis International, De Kalb County Board of Health and the De Kalb Pork Board. He is a member of ISVMA, AVMA and AAHA. Associates are Charles Scholkopf (Ill. '81), Mike Scholkopf (Ill. '78), Deborah Scholkopf (Ill. '78), Hal Leonard (Ill. '92), Steve Feuerback (ISU '91), Noel Garbes (ISU '91) and Carlos Domingues (ISU '91). Hobbies include running, fishing, travel, golf, dancing, horseback riding and flower gardening. He lives in Creston, Illinois and has a daughter, Jenny, 26, and a son, Steve, 31.

John M. Cunningham is retired and lives in Steamboat Springs, Colorado. He was a food animal practitioner for 18 years and spent 12 years in industrial veterinary medicine. He and his wife, Dawn, have three children, Matthew, Stephanie, and Michael.

Dennis D. Dolney is the owner of a bovine practice in Waubay, South Dakota. He is a member of SDVMA, AVMA, and AABP. He and his wife, Betty, have two daughters, Andrea Vosberg and Christine Dolney.

Gene Erickson is a laboratory diagnostician in Raleigh, North Carolina. He earned an MS and PhD in Veterinary Microbiology and is a Diplomate of the American College of Veterinary Microbiologists as well as a member of the AVMA, AASP, AAAP, AAVLD, ASM, and USAHA. His family includes wife-Brenda and children, Jennifer and Jon.

Peter S. Haberly is retired from veterinary medicine and lives in Orlando, Florida. He worked as a track and paddock veterinarian for Miami Racetracks from 1971 to 1975, and owned an equine practice in Orlando from 1977 to 1999. He is a member of the AVMA, FVMA, and AAEP. He has a step-son, Lloyd Willoz.

David G. Hahn is active in bovine practice in Waukon, Iowa. He is involved in the Kiwanis Club, AABP, AVMA, IVMA and is a session member for the First Presbyterian Church. Associates are Craig Phipps (ISU '78), Rod Smed (ISU '83) and Chris Harven (ISU '90). His family includes his wife, Suzanne and their children Jennifer, David and Julie.

Jack J. Johnson is a beef specialist veterinarian at Sioux Nation Agricultural Center and Veterinary Clinic in Spencer, Iowa. He has served on many boards and was the IVMA director for 12 years. His other activities include CD Farm Service Director, Dickinson County Fair Board, and school board member. His family includes his wife Lynne and his children Jim, Christopher, Louis and Thomas, and several grandchildren.

James L. Jordan is active in predominantly small animal practice in Boone, Iowa. He is a member of AVMA, IVMA and AASP. He practiced in Gowrie from 1970 to 1976 and has been in Boone since 1976. His associate since 1976 has been Douglas Gustafson. He has a wife, Pat, and two daughters, Jennifer and Jessica, of Overland Park, Kansas.

Larry Koehnk is a partner in Koehnk and Feldman, LLP, is president of ARKO Laboratories, Ltd., and is president of Brouet Laboratories. He is a member of AVMA, IVMA, AASP and AAAP. He is a member of the Jewell Library Board and the Bethesda Lutheran Church Council. He is involved in the Cell and Molecular Biology training at Catholic University and animal cell culture at Penn State University. He and his wife, Kristine, live in Jewell, Iowa and have three children.

Roger W. Laimans joined Kimberly Crest Veterinary Hospital in 1970 prior to graduation. He is currently the owner and director... of the practice, a small animal AAHA hospital in Davenport, Iowa. He works with associates Michael E. Thomsen (ISU, 1990), Heidi Houghton (ISU 1996), and Ryan Less (ISU, 1998). Dr. Laimans is a member of AVMA and IVMA. He also has a wife, Susan.

I. Timothy Lucas is retired and lives in Pella, Iowa. He is a Rotarian, President of the Chamber of Commerce, Pella Area Development Corporation board member, and church trustee. He and his wife, Joan, have two children, Ted and Jeff.

Edmund R. Mc Guire is active in federal meat and poultry inspection in Sioux City, Iowa. He has worked for the USDA as a federal veterinarian for 28 1/2 years. He lives in Cherokee, Iowa with his wife, Jessie. He does woodworking, and makes and restores furniture and antiques. He has a small beef cow herd and raises a large garden. In May, 2002, he plans to retire so that he can travel and golf. He has three children, Mike, Chad and Jill, and two stepchildren, Brad and Jo Ellen.

Barbara H. Miller practices mixed animal medicine in Viola, Wisconsin. She and her husband, Cecil, have two children, Deb and Glenn.

Terry K. Moore works in a small animal and exotics practice in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. He and his wife, Boni, have a son, Christopher, and a daughter, Teri Nicole, as well as two grandchildren.

Dennis A. Nelson is Vice President of Sales for the Heska Corporation, and owns a practice in Minneapolis, Minnesota. He is a member of MVMA, AAHA, AVMA and AAEP. His wife, Joyce, and he have two children, Marnnie and Daniell.

Denny Passman is a solo small animal practitioner at an AAHA accredited hospital in Fort Pierce, Florida. He is a member of the Rotary Club, the Kairus Prison Ministry, and is an elder in his church. He is a member of AVMA, FVMA, AAHA and TCVMA. His wife, Chris, of 32 years and he have a son, Todd, and a daughter, Jodi.

Perry F. Pollock owns small animal practices in Rockford and Roscoe, Illinois. He has served on the Board of the Greater Rockford Veterinary Medical Association, the Northern Illinois Veterinary Medical Association, and the Illinois State Veterinary Medical Association. He is also active in an elementary school board, 4-H, and the North End Commons Business Association. He works with Phyllis Sill (University of Illinois, 1996). He has four children, Laura, Brian, Mark, and John, with his wife, Janet.

David A. Rybolt is a food animal practitioner at the Tri-County Veterinary Clinic in Barned, Missouri. He was President of the Lions Club in 1999 and has been a Christian Church Board Chairman for ten years. He is a member of AVMA, AAABP, AASP, IVMA, and MVMA as well as the Society of Theriogenology. He and his wife, Karen, have three children, Mike, Dana, and Ryan.

Mark Schulz works in general practice as well as swine consulting at the Animal Medical Centers in Spencer and Hartley, Iowa. His associates include Dave Christenson, Gene Hjelm, Mark Rees, Wendi Rees, Jerry Finch, and Charles Schnack (ISU, 1970). Dr. Schulz is actively involved in his community and church and has served on various boards and committees. His proud moments include winning a rock trophy for falling off of a horse at fun night. He and his wife, Susan, have a daughter, Sarah, and two sons, Christopher and Todd.

Robert L. Snakenberg is a senior partner in a small animal practice located in Iowa City, Iowa. His associates include David Nyren (ISU) and Beth Shannon (ISU). He and his wife, Myrna, have a son, Matt.

Class of 1980

Douglas LoRoy Armstrong is currently working at the Henry Doorly Zoo in Omaha, Nebraska. He completed an internship at Cornell University and is a member of the AAZV, NVMA, and AVMA. He and his wife, Terry, and their sons, Joshua and Jacob, live in Glenwood, Iowa.

Dennis Boileau and Jodi Arndt are active in small animal practice at Chanhassen Vet erinary Clinic in Chanhassen, Minnesota. His practice received the Veterinary Economics/Pfizer Practice of Excellence award in 1999. Their associate is Deanne McCabe (ISU '81). They live in rural Chaska, Minnesota with their children, Kathryn and Andrew.

Brian K. Butzer is the owner of Clint Moore Animal Hospital & Pet Resort in Boca Raton, Florida. He has four children, Robert, Lindsay, Lisa, and Matthew, with his wife, Leslie.

Tom Burkgren is the Executive Director of the AASP and lives in Perry, Iowa. He received an MBA from Drake University in 1989. He also received the AASP Meritorious Award for 2000. He and his wife, Sue Kimpston, have two children, Kay and Joey.

David Calderwood is active in mixed animal practice in Casselton, North Dakota. He is part-owner of Casselton Veterinary Clinic. He is a member of AABP, AASP, and is on the board of directors for the NDVMA and for the Casselton Parks and Recreation. He and his wife, June, have two children, Matthew and Nichole.

Tom Carpenter is a Laguna Hills, California small animal practice owner. He is a member of AVMA, AAHA, CVMA, SCVMA and AAHA Practice Team Membership Committee. Associates include Tom Austin (Pur '80), Ken Millar (CSU '82), Renee Herrera (Davis '87) and Cindy Wade (Davis '84). He lives in Costa Mesa, California with his wife Debra, and they have two sons, Stephen and Adam.

Christopher Chase is an Associate Professor at South Dakota State University and is a consulting veterinarian for Flandreau Veterinary Clinic in Flandreau, South Dakota. He earned his MS and PhD in virology/immunology from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. He is the chairman of the AVMA Council on Research, the President-elect of the South Dakota Veterinary Medical Association, and the President of Ruval Technologies, Inc., an animal health research company. He is on the board of directors for the American Association of Veterinary Immunologists and is active in the Catholic campus parish. He works with Kris Fogarty (ISU, 1995). He and his wife, Mary, have four children, Christopher, Stephanie, Erin, and Jennifer.

Mary Christopher is Professor of Clinical Pathology at the School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California, Davis. She received her Ph.D. from the University of Minnesota (1988) and is board certified by ACVP (1990). She has held many leadership and academic positions and has released many scientific publications throughout her career. She has a son, Pete, of Santa Monica, California.

Cynthia S. Cook is an ophthalmology specialist in private practice, with offices in San Mateo and San Francisco, California. She was board certified in ophthalmology in 1986, and received her Ph.D. in 1987 from the University of North Carolina. She lives in Half Moon Bay, California with her two twin girls, Rachel and Paige, and her husband, Paul Pruitt.

Janyce Corneck-Seahorn is a veterinary anesthesiologist in Georgetown, Kentucky. She received a master's degree from Texas A&M University in 1988. She is a diplomate of ACVIM (1990) and of ACVA (1991). She is married to Thomas Seahorn and they have two children, Bradley, 5 and Samuel, 2.

Michael Eberle is the owner of a small animal clinic in Des Moines, Iowa. He has a wife, Paula Feltner.

Gary E. Eiben was with the Edgewood Veterinary Clinic for 20 years, but has now accepted a position as District Veterinarian for Iowa. He is a member of AVMA, IVMA (He is on the board of directors for district 9 and is on the legislative committee), and AABP. He is a member of the Edgewood Chamber of Commerce and St. Joseph’s Catholic Church. He lives in Colesburg, Iowa with his wife, Katie, and their 6 children Nathan, Melissa, Sarah, Joshua, Amy, and Matthew.

Ira Engeltjes is active in predominantly equine mixed animal practice in Coopersville, Michigan and lives with his spouse Valerie.

Mark Engle is the Chief Operating Officer of Newsland Hybrids, USA. He is a member of the AASP Board of Directors, and LCI Board of Directors. He and his wife, Bobbi, and chil-

William W. Gray is a partner in a small animal practice in Iowa City, Iowa. He works with partner, William Walter (ISU, '75) and associate Valerie Gaeth (KSU, 1981). He is a graduate of the Iowa City Chamber of Commerce Community Leadership Program, a board member of the Iowa Soccer Club, a board member of the Mercy Hospital Advisory Board, and a councilperson in the University Heights City Council. He and his wife, Anne Wallace, make their home in University Heights, Iowa with their children, Jake, Dan, and Hanna.

David L. Hahn is the owner of a mixed animal practice and has lived and worked in Canton, Illinois, since 1981. He is a member of AAEP, AABP, AAHA, and has served on various committees for local and state associations. He and his wife, Angie, have three children, Josh, Erin, and Alisha.

Patricia M. Hogan works in an ultrasound referral practice in East Lyme, Connecticut. She earned her MS in 1987 from the University of Missouri and completed her board certification in radiology in 1988. She was Assistant and Associate Professor at Atlantic Veterinary College at Prince Edward Island, Canada from 1987-1996. She received the Clinical Rotation Teaching Award in 1991 and the SCAVMA Teaching Award in 1994. She and her husband, Mark Novotny (ISU, '80), have two children, Jennifer and Stephanie.

William R. Jepsen is retired from veterinary medicine and is an active farmer near Heppner, Oregon. He owned and operated the Oregon Trail Veterinary Clinic until 1986. He then moved back to the family farm after his father retired and now grows primarily wheat and barley. He and his wife, Nancy, have five children, Matt, 19, Dan, 16, Amy, 13, Eric, 8, and Rebecca, 6.

Craig K. Johnson is active in mixed animal practice in Manson, Iowa. He was an IVMA executive board member for District 6 from 1996 to 2000, and has been a NCIVMA executive board member since 1991. He is on the board of trustees and is a current member of Our Savior Methodist Church. His associate is Steve Leppert (ISU '90). His family includes his wife Kathy and their children Brent, Elias, and Natalie.

Darrel A. Kraayenbrink works in food animal practice in Platte, South Dakota. He has served on local Christian school boards and is a member of the AVMA, SDVMA, AABP, and AASP. He and his wife Mary have been active foster parents for the past eight years. They have two sons, Nathan and David, and a daughter, Sarah.

Leonard Kutsch is active in small animal practice at DBA Central Animal Hospital in Dubuque, Iowa. His family includes his wife, Tyra, and daughters Kirsten and Lindsey.

Douglas E. Morrison is the owner of a mixed animal practice, Crivitz Veterinary Clinic, Inc., in Crivitz, Wisconsin. He is a member of the AVMA, WVMA, AABP, Lions Club, Masonic Lodge, and Presbyterian Church. He and his wife, Sue, have three daughters, Cavalee, Kristin, and Katelyn.

Jean E. Otte is active in small animal practice at Willowbrook Veterinary Center in Orange Park, Florida. She is involved in the Southeastern Guide Dogs, Jacksonville VMA, Florida VMA, AAHA, and Crossroads Lutheran Church. She lives in Middleburg, Florida and has two sons, Eric, 16, and Evan, 12.

Andrew M. Payson is a practicing veterinarian in Boca Raton, Florida. He and his wife, Dana, have a daughter, Alysia, and a son, Jonathan.

Gerald L. Pribyl is the owner of the Gentle Doctor Animal Hospital and South Shores Animal Hospital and a partner in the Veterinarian Aquarium Group. He is board certified by the ABVP and practices companion animal medicine as well as aquarium medicine and surgery on animals such as sharks and crocodiles. The Gentle Doctor Animal Hospital was the Veterinary Economy Hospital runner up in 1994 and Dr. Pribyl was declared Best Veterinarian of Las Vegas in 1999 by Review Journal. He works with Steve Strobeck (CSU), Jenny Trembley (CSU), Tom Benl (ISU), Steve Capron (OSU), Jason Sullivan (OSU), and Jennifer Hale (Minnesota). Dr. Pribyl works in Las Vegas, Nevada and makes his home in Ames, Iowa as well as in Las Vegas. He has a wife, Mary, and three children, Katie, Nick, and Elizabeth.

Mark G. Prochaska is a small animal veterinarian at Kenwood Pet Clinic in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Paul Van Roekel works in embryo transfer at Trans OUA Genetics in Sioux Center, Iowa. He is a member of AABP, IVMA, AVMA, AETA, and the Executive Veterinary Program in Swine Medicine. He is an Active member of the New Life Reformed Church and a Justice For All board member. He has two children, Heath and Nick, with his wife, Linda.

Frederick C. Rock is a swine practitioner in Avoca, Iowa. He earned an MBA from Creighton University in 1999 and is a Level III Candidate in the Chartered Financial Analysis Program. His family includes a wife, Alexandra, and children Jane (8) and Catherine (5).

Barbara Rush is a small animal practitioner at Rush Animal Care Clinic, P.C. in Johnston, Iowa. She is a member of AVMA, IVMA, Society of Theriogenology, and is on staff at the West Des Moines United Methodist Church as a pianist and recorded a CD in August of 1999. She lives in West Des Moines with her husband, Dr. Bruce Pichler, and their daughters, Amanda and Alicia.

Dan A. Schuler is active in mixed practice at Wishek Veterinary Clinic in Wishek, North Dakota. He is a member of NDVMA, AVMA and AABP. He and his wife, Anna, have two children, Benjamin and Grace.

Patrick Sexton is active in dairy practice with Readlyn Veterinary Associates. He completed an internship at the University of Saskatchewan and a residency and Masters of Veterinary Science at the University of Saskatchewan. He is on the executive board of the IVMA. He is married to his wife Stephanie.

Susan M. Stanley is the owner of St. Clair Small Animal Hospital in Fairview Heights, Illinois. She is the Southern Illinois VMA secretary, the PTA president, and is on the board of directors of P.T.O.E.C. Her daughter, Morgan Katie, and she share their home with a greyhound, a rat terrier, and a pug, all from rescue organizations.

Therese C. Weiser is a small animal practitioner working at Companions Animal Hospital in Boise, Idaho. She and her husband Bill have a son, Matt and a daughter, Chrissy.

Janet S. Wilson (Baker) is the owner of a companion animal clinic in Clutier, Iowa. She is a member of AVMA and IVMA. She was an Iowa alternate delegate to AVMA and received the IVMA Meritorious Service Award in 1999. She is the Dysart Women’s Club President, the United Methodist Women’s President, a corporate member of Dysart Development, and a member of ISU’s Tomorrow’s Leaders Today. She and her husband, William, have two daughters, Laura and Lindsay.

Norman L. Wonderlich is the owner of a mixed animal practice in Blooming Prairie, Minnesota. He is the Blooming Prairie First Lutheran Church Council President, Lions Club President, Economic Development Board President and school board member. He is a member of AVMA, Minnesota VMA, AABP (Animal Welfare Committee Member), the National Mastitis Council, and Southeastern Minnesota VMA. His wife, Marjorie, and he have 3 children, Andrea, Jessica, and Sara.

Jonita Woodbridge (Jacobsen) is active in small animal practice in Sioux City, Iowa at Elk Creek Animal Hospital. She is a member of AVMA and AAHA and is treasurer for the Interstate Veterinary Medical Association. She is active in the Grace United Methodist Church, is past Chairman of Staff of the Parish Relations Committee, is active in cub scouts where she is currently Cubmaster of Pack, and is the 4-H leader for the Happy Hollow 4-H Club. She is married to her husband Alan and they have 3 children, John, 15, Aaron, 12, and Levi, 8.

Class of 1990

Keith L. Aljets is involved in mixed animal practice in Williamsburg, Iowa. His family includes his wife, Louise, and their children, Adam, 6, John, 4, and Ethan, 2.

Sheree Beam is a pathology resident at Cornell University in Ithaca, New York. She lives in Brooktondale, New York.

Robert Blomme is active in mixed animal practice at Audubon-Manning Veterinary Clinic in Audubon, Iowa. He is a member of AABP, AASP, and is the chair of the Cattle Health and Well-Being for the Iowa Cattlemen’s Association. He and his wife, Linda, have four children, Courtney, 10, Jay, 8, Allison, 4, and Andrew, 3.

Kay Boucher is an associate veterinarian in Duluth, Minnesota. She and her husband Norm have 3 children, Benjamin, 12, Lindsey, 9, and Adam, 7.

David Eaton is active in predominantly companion animal practice at Scott County Animal Hospital in Eldridge, Iowa. His family includes his wife, Pamela, and their children Wyatt, 6 and Cordell, 3.

Nancy L. Goetsch is the owner of a mixed animal clinic in New Hampton, Iowa. She is a member of IVMA, AVMA, AABP, AASP, and ICA.

Ann Marie Gull-Clemons is active in small animal/exotic practice in Rockford, Illinois. She is married to her husband Douglas.

Michelle R. Hansen is an associate veterinarian in Cody, Wyoming.

John Kolb is a tech services veterinarian in Smithville, Mo. He was a practicing veterinarian for 4 years and has been working in industry for 7 years. He is a member of the Editorial Board of Swine Health and Production, and was awarded the Walco award for Outstanding Field Support. He and his wife, Jill, have three children, Delaney, 8, Madelein, 7, and Ian, 4.

Keith Kremmer is the owner of a small animal referral practice, Veterinary Internal Medicine of Utah. He completed a residency in small animal internal medicine at the University of Florida in 1994. He received the Animal Bedside Manner Award in 1993; the Resident of the Year Award in 1994; and the ACVIM Outstanding Presentation Award in 1994. He is board certified in small animal internal medicine, 1995. He lives with his wife, Ellen, and their children Wyatt, 5, Liza, 3, and Josie, 1, in Herber City, Utah.

Paula Kuhfus is active in small animal practice and has owned Radcliffe Animal Care Clinic in Radcliffe, Iowa, since 1995. She is a member of IVMA. She and her husband, Jon, have three children, Benson, 9, Alison, 7, and Madison, 3.

Steven Leppert is a partner in a two-person mixed animal practice in Manson, Iowa. He is a NCIVMA executive board member, cub scout leader, and Knights of Columbus Youth Soccer Coordinator. He and his wife, Lisa, have two children, Jared and Mitchell.

Denise A. Mankin is a veterinarian at the Animal Emergency Clinic in Des Moines, Iowa. She is a member of GDVMA, AVMA, IVMA, and IVCECS. Her associates include Karl Bolser, ISU 1990, and Dave Jansen, Wisconsin 1994. Her two children are Justin, 9 and Cory, 5.

Scott McClure is Assistant Professor of Equine Surgery at ISU. He completed a large animal surgery residency at Texas A&M. He became a Diplomate of ACVS in 1995, and received a Ph.D. from Texas A&M in 1996.

Patricia I. Murphy is a small animal practitioner at West Villa Animal Hospital in Kearney, Nebraska. She is a member of NVMA, AVMA, and is a veterinary chiropractitioner. Her associate is Dennis Larsen (KSU ’75). She is married to her husband Earl and they have a son.

Lee M. Nelson is active in mixed animal practice in Creighton, Nebraska.

Michael Samuels and Judy Miller are active in small animal/exotic practice in Tucson, Arizona. They are the owners of Central Animal Hospital, which opened in 1998. They are members of AAV, AAZV, AVMA and AZVMA. They have two children, Rachel and Daniel.

Shon D. Sawyer is currently taking care of the cattle at Maverick Feeders, Inc. He bought a six thousand head feedlot in 1994. He and his wife, Julie, and children, Dillon and Halle, live in Hurley, South Dakota.

Gregory J. Schnoebelen owns the St. Francis Veterinary Clinic in Iowa City, Iowa. He is a member of IVMA (small animal committee member) and EIVMA. He lives with his wife, Valerie, and their children Andrew, 8, Marie, 5, and Nicholas, 3.

Steven C. Smith is active in mixed animal practice in Osceola, Iowa. He has been involved in various associations relating to agriculture and local livestock, such as the Draft Horse Association, the Clarke County Cattlemen, and the Clarke County Fairboard. He lives with his wife, Noreen, and their children Chelsea, 16, Colton, 14, Cassidy, 10, and Cody, 8.

Timothy A. Sullivan is the owner of a small animal practice in Aurora, Nebraska. He is a member of the NVMA and has participated in several committees, the Knights of Columbus, the Godparent Teacher Program, the Aurora County Club Board, and the Optimist Board. He is also the Vice Chairman of the PTA and a Leadership Tomorrow Organizer. He has two sons, Trevor and Jared, with his wife, Lisa.

Camille Telleen is the owner of All Creatures Small Animal Hospital in Indianola, Iowa. She is a member of AVMA and IVMA and is the vice president of the American Oxford Down Sheep Association. She and her husband, Jay Franzen, have two children, Henry and August.

Denise Wann is a veterinary clinical pathologist with Idexx Veterinary Services at Tufts University in North Grafton, Massachusetts. She performed her residency at Washington State University and earned her masters degree in 1997. She was an adjunct instructor at ISU until 2000.

Ron D. White is a technical services veterinarian for swine. He works for Fort Dodge Animal Health. He completed the Executive Veterinary Program for swine practitioners at the University of Illinois in 1998. He serves as Executive Board Member for District 12 of the IVMA, and is a member of AASP and AAIV. He lives in Ames, Iowa with his wife, Sue, who is an RN in oncology at McFarland Clinic. They have two sons, Brady, 11, and Trevor, 8.

The Veterinary Medical Alumni Association at Iowa State University (VMAA@ISU) is a nonprofit organization composed of graduates of the ISU College of Veterinary Medicine. Annual dues of $25 support the ISU Veterinarian, alumni recognition awards, student scholarships, and receptions at homecoming and four major veterinary meetings. Members also receive a free subscription to the ISU Veterinarian. For more information or for assistance with a class reunion, please contact Dr. Ron Morgan at (515)233-5183 or e-mail to rmorgan69@prodigy.net. Mail inquiries and dues to: VMAA@ISU, P.O.Box 1726, Ames, IA, 50010.