VISUAL ARTS BIOS

Alyssa Frandsen is 18 years old and has lived in Roland, Iowa her whole life. She enjoys photography and writing quite a bit, and one day hopes to combine the two interests into something of her own.

Lauren Frandsen is a junior in journalism with minors in music and philosophy. She enjoys lemonade on hot days, coffee on cold days, and music every day.

Andreas Frick is originally from Germany, and is a senior double majoring in aerospace engineering and political science. He pursues photography as a hobby, typically emphasizing geometry and amorphous structures in scenery or architecture in black & white.

Courtney Gaskins is originally from Des Moines, Iowa. Dancing, cooking, and figuring out how people work are her favorite things.

Kristine Keil grew up on a farm in north central Iowa and came to ISU straight from high school. She graduated December 2009, and finally decided it was time to submit something to Sketch. Her pictures are taken from around her parents' farm where she grew up.

Kait McKinney is a freshman in pre-journalism, considering a minor in English creative writing. She really enjoys coffee, satire, and hope to one day be able to play the ukulele.

Jessica Monk is a mathematics major from Eden Prairie, Minnesota. She is involved with Habitat for Humanity.

Cory Skeers is a creative writing major, with plans of pursuing an MFA. He writes fiction and poetry, as well as the less conventional Sharpie on newspaper.
