Dear Lorrie Smith,

Places Journal does not retain the copyright for contributors' work. If Professor Engler approves, we are happy to see the article available via the Digital Repository.

Best,

Nancy Levinson

Dear Permissions Specialist:

I work for the Iowa State University Library and I have been working with Dr. Mira Engler to get their scholarship deposited in our institutional repository, Digital Repository @ Iowa State University. Dr. Engler is a contributing author to your journal, Places, and I am writing for permission to deposit copies of their articles in our repository.

Dr. Engler has published an article(s) in Places, including:

1999 “A Living Memorial: Commemorating Yitzhak Rabin at the Tel Aviv Square,”
Places 12.2 (Winter): 4–11.

Digital Repository @ Iowa State University is a non-commercial institutional repository that provides access to the scholarship of Iowa State University’s faculty, students and staff. This scholarship is made available for personal, educational and research use. All articles deposited in the repository are described with complete bibliographic information for the original publication and includes an explicit statement identifying the date and owner of copyright.

Please let me know if we have permission to deposit these articles in our repository. I look forward to hearing from you.
