Dear Scott Marron:

Since none of Dr. Sharma's papers listed below was published in the Transportation Research Record series, TRB does not own the copyrights for the papers. The copyrights belong to the authors. You may deposit the papers into your institutional repository, Iowa State University Digital Repository.

However, because the Dr. Sharma and the coauthors may have incorporated comments from the TRB peer review into this paper, we ask that as a professional courtesy you acknowledge that the papers were peer-reviewed by TRB and presented at the Annual Meeting of the Transportation Research Board, Washington, D.C.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Jennifer J. Weeks

Dear Jennifer,

Thank you for the quick reply!

I double-checked and made sure that none of the titles below are found in Transportation Research Record: Journal of the Transportation Research Board.

(See inline comments, preceded by ***)

If I can help in some other way, please let me know.

Cordially,

Scott Marron

Dear D. Scott Marron,

I will have to check each paper to see whether or not the paper was published in the Transportation Research Record. It will take me a few days. I will get back to sometime next week. Unless you can assure me with absolute certainty that none of the papers was published in the Record, I cannot grant permission at this time.

Sincerely,

Jennifer J. Weeks

Hi Jennifer,

Iowa State University wants to know if they can store copies of papers authored or co-authored by one of their professors in their digital repository. These are all AM papers.

Iowa State University Digital Repository is a non-commercial institutional repository that provides access to the scholarship of Iowa State University’s faculty, students and staff. This scholarship is made available for personal, educational and research use. All publications deposited in the repository are described with complete bibliographic information for the original publication and includes an explicit statement identifying the date and owner of copyright.

Please let me know if we have permission to deposit their publications in our repository. I look forward to hearing from you.
