SWEDEN:

Sweden is the third largest exporter of music in the world with artists such as ABBA, Robyn, and Ace of Base gaining international success.

CHECK OUT:
KEBNEKAJSE — Progressive
ROBYN — Electro Pop

GERMANY:

With the help of composers Bach and Beethoven, classical music has in part stemmed from Germany. Today, Germany is also known for its electronic music, hip hop, and heavy metal.

CHECK OUT:
GAMMA RAY — 80’s Metal
RAMMSTEIN — Industrial Metal

BELGIUM:

Belgium’s close proximity to England may be the cause, but drum and bass and trip hop are as popular in Belgium as they are across the channel. Some of the genre’s most prominent artists have come from Belgium.

CHECK OUT:
HOOVERPHONIC — Trip Hop
NETSKY — Drum and Bass

SWEDEN:

Like the rest of Scandinavia, Norway is best known for its heavy metal and its electronic music, but it has not found the international success that Sweden has.

CHECK OUT:
ROYKSOPP — Trip Hop
FLUNK — Trip Hop

SPAIN:

Traditionally, Spain is known for its flamenco music, which draws its influence from its Arab neighbors to the south. Now, Spanish Rock is paving its way in the music scene, becoming popular throughout Latin America.

CHECK OUT:
MALDITA NERERA — Spanish Rock
EL PESCAO — Spanish Rock
