Quickies: Fast Fun for Everyone

Millei Ishikawa
Iowa State University

Katelyn McCollough
Iowa State University

Follow this and additional works at: http://lib.dr.iastate.edu/ethos
Part of the Higher Education Commons, and the Journalism Studies Commons

Recommended Citation
Available at: http://lib.dr.iastate.edu/ethos/vol2011/iss3/3
Whoa, what happened?
Some of the Craziest Dorm Stories We Could Find

More than 8500 ISU students choose to live in residence halls and student apartments across campus each year. Moving into the dorm means joining forty to sixty other strangers on your floor alone. Add in the excitement of the weekend after a long week of classes and some pretty interesting things can happen.

"What a bitch. So the first couple of weeks start and everything is chill and we are friends. Then she starts getting more comfortable. I walked in on her masturbating to the Weather Channel one afternoon! She also had this way-awesome boyfriend that went to a different school but she was messing around with some other dude. She would have sex with him all the time when I was in the room doing homework and sleeping and whatnot. And she would be up watching TV with all the lights on at like 3 or 4 in the morning because she just stopped going to class. Needless to say, I left after the first semester!"

Margaret Smith, Oak Hall, junior

"Last semester, in the first week of classes, one of my suite-mates decided to have shower sex in our bathroom at 3 a.m. It woke me and my roommate up. So the next day I wrote her a post-it saying, 'If you could refrain from having sex in our shower, it would be greatly appreciated.'"

Jamie Walls, Buchanan Hall, junior

"Well we were studying in a boy’s room. The boys were messing around hanging condoms and tampons on each other’s doors and then putting ketchup and mustard all over the handles as well. They managed to slam the door, and then it broke for the first time. We were able to fix it with a pocketknife. Later around 1 a.m., three other people and I were in the room and the door got slammed again, this time it broke for good. We weren’t able to open the door, so we took off the screens and fished up tools from my room directly below. We tried to work on getting the door open for an hour and a half. The boys in the hall went to wake up the CA who called the cops, who then called maintenance. It took them an hour and a half to open the door because they were trying to decide on which way was more economically efficient. We finally got out at 5 a.m."

Sterling Schnepf, freshman

"Two guys in gorilla suits chasing a guy in a banana suit through the dorm. Enough said."

Bailey Morrell, freshman

"The first week of living in the dorms was a pretty great time. I was finally away from home and able to do what I wanted, so naturally, I partied all week. Classes hadn’t started yet, so it wasn’t a big deal. During the middle of that first week I realized the dorms would take some getting used to, especially after a few drinks. I got back to my dorm in Larch Hall from a party that night and went to bed. In the middle of the night I needed to take a piss, so I went to the bathroom on our floor then returned to my room. The next morning I woke up, looked around, and realized I was not in my room. Two guys I had never met before were looking at me, and I yelled ‘Where the fuck am I?’ The first guy responded, ‘Dude you came in our room last night, climbed into my loft and passed out next to me. I was pretty drunk too, so I just let you have it and slept on the futon below. Worst part is you refused to give me my blanket.’ We laughed and chatted a little longer. Turns out they were a couple of nice guys who lived 2 doors down from me, and we’ve been friends ever since."

Nathan Hughes, Larch Hall, senior

"When I lived in Martin, my roommates and I would pull pranks on the guys that lived next door to us, but one night, we decided to step it up. At around 3am, we woke up, got 300 Dixie cups, filled them each with water and then placed them around the outside of our neighbors door. When our neighbors woke up, they opened their inward-swinging door to find they were ‘trapped’ by all the Dixie cups. Unfortunately, being men, they just stomped their way through the five feet of cups and went to class. The poor custodians had to clean it all up. It was still a good laugh though."

Alexandra Kius, junior

"That party last night was awfully crazy, I wish we taped it."

Bailey Morrell, freshman
Things NOT to do on CyRide

Photography AMANDA RIESENBERG

1) Keep your phone conversation to yourself. That means lower the volume.
2) Standing so close you’re giving me a lap dance.
3) You only need to pull the cord once. We promise.
4) Understand personal space. Your neighbor is not a pillow.
5) Rehearsing your Lumberyard strip moves on the pole.
6) Don’t be the asshole who takes up more than one seat. You’re not that special.

TUNES YOU NEED

The staff got together and shared some of our current earworms. Check them out!

1. “My House” by Kids of 88
2. “Driving Me Crazy” by Sam Adams
3. “Get It Gooey” by Goone
4. “Feel Good” by Mode Step
5. “Ayo” by Hypercrush
6. “Stereo Hands” by The White Panda
7. “Sun of a Gun” by Oh Land,
8. “Get Some” by Lykke Li
9. “You Are a Tourist” by Death Cab for Cutie
10. “Alligator Sky” by Owl City
11. “I Wrote the Book” by Beth Ditto
12. “Wonderland” by Natalia Kills
14. “If I Was You” by Far East Movement
15. “Cardiac Arrest” by Teddybears ft. Robyn
16. “Love 2 Baby” by Christian TV
17. “Sure Thing” by Miguel
18. “Lights Turned On” by Childish Gambino

Donald Glover from NBC’s “Community” is not just an awesome comedian, he’s an amazing rapper. Hopefully you caught him at VEISHEA.

Under Cover of Darkness” by The Strokes

Back with an album full of infective riffs, The Strokes brought plenty to please old fans.

“Best Love” by Steve Martin & The Steep Canyon Rangers feat. Paul McCartney

“You Are a Tourist” by Death Cab for Cutie

“Someone Like You” by Adele

“My Brain Says Stop. But My Heart Says Go” by FM Static

AND TUNES YOU CAN LEAVE OFF YOUR IPOD

Rebecca Black

We’ll leave out the song title for fear of triggering it in your head

Most of Forever, The Sickest Kids newest album

“Roll Up” by Wiz Khalifa

“21st Century Girl” by Willow Smith

We hope her nightmare music career doesn’t last as long as Lil’ Romeo’s.