Cover Story: The Inter-What?
Like it or not, we're all on the road to cyberspace. Once you get there, it's actually a pretty cool place, if you don't get lost. ethos presents a road map, with instructions, for first-time travelers.

Renovation and Commemoration
Pride, success and progress are celebrated as the university prepares to begin renovations to Botany Hall.

Iowa State in Transition
The Jischke administration prepares for the Year 2000—the second in an ethos two-part series.

The “Right” Voice
Once a “hot” issue, the United States Student Association is hardly mentioned in the Government of the Student Body Senate. Think that means the controversy is over? Think again.

Once Upon a Revision ...
... in the kingdom of Politically Correct, children's fairy tales were no longer acceptable as written. A few red pens and numerous editions later, new stories have emerged from the classics. Some say it's for the better. Anthony Stefani says it isn't.
