Attention Getter

The Ethos staff was out to investigate – and we saw you. Yeah, don’t try to deny it. At every basketball game we saw you checking out the guys’ and girls’ basketball teams while they were on the court. We saw the yearning in your eyes and heard the yelling of your pleas. You would do anything for a date with these athletes, but you don’t know how to get their attention. Well, don’t worry. Ethos is here to save you, again. Here are some helpful hints to getting their attention and impressing the basketball players – while they’re playing. Don’t wonder what could be anymore, take action, and go get the lovin’ you deserve.
Every girl likes a guy who can play the guitar. Conclusion? Bring your own guitar and amp. When everyone is quiet, play your own version of the national anthem. This is a surefire way to get her attention and melt her heart with your riffs.

Show off those abs. Sometimes a little skin is worth 1,000 words. Girls don’t like shy guys, and this will prove your worth. Try to pick a pose that works fits your personality. The one above is definitely not recommended.

The best way to get his attention is to prove you are not just another face in the crowd. The best way - get some good (and trusting) friends to be the base of a human pyramid. Get on top and show your team spirit.

Make sure you’re in the front row for this one, and wait until your favorite player and yourself make eye contact. Be sure you don’t get too crazy, you might cause a riot and inadvertently get the attention of not just the player.

Put your mug shot along with a seductive invitation. This is sure fire way to get a glance up in the stands. When he looks up, make sure you’re ready to make that first impression.

Give him a wink and the sign will do the talking. Eye contact is key. Get creative with your words, a little laugh could get you that first date.
