Who's There and Where

Helen Putnam
Iowa State College

Follow this and additional works at: http://lib.dr.iastate.edu/homemaker

Part of the Home Economics Commons

Recommended Citation
Available at: http://lib.dr.iastate.edu/homemaker/vol4/iss3/13

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Student Publications at Iowa State University Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Iowa Homemaker by an authorized editor of Iowa State University Digital Repository. For more information, please contact digirep@iastate.edu.
ANNUAL VEISHEA A SUCCESS

Veishea was truly a success. From the march of the preps to their bonfire Thursday morning, until the finale of "Yaimani!" Saturday night.

Hearty cooperation has been shown by the students of the different divisions during the past three celebrations which developed gradually from the former individual open houses and carnivals.

Veishea was originally established with the primary purpose of eliminating the break in college work caused by five divisional celebrations held on five different weeks. There is no doubt that Veishea has served this purpose for which it was originally intended, and yes, it has done even more, it has passed the expectations of everyone.

The "Mikado" in Agriculture Assembly with Japanese costumes and settings in striking colors, and the dance in the State Gym, led by a twelve piece orchestra furnished the entertainment of huge crowds.

The "Mikado" in Agriculture Assembly with Japanese costumes and settings in striking colors, and the dance in the State Gym, led by a twelve piece orchestra furnished the entertainment of huge crowds. Thursday evening, Thursday afternoon.

A varsity baseball game was won from Washington University of St. Louis, but another varsity game was lost to the same school Friday morning. State and world records were broken in spite of the rain Saturday afternoon when the college under-stars from all over Iowa met for the state track and field meet.

A large crowd attended the May Fete, "The Wishing Chair," which was staged south of the Campanile Thursday afternoon.

The night show held Saturday evening in the State gymnasium was a great drawing card for out of town guests. About 150 men and women appeared in this annual all-college musical comedy. Because of the reputation gained by "Melody Magic" last year, a large number in the audience were people from surrounding communities who had journeyed to Ames for the express purpose of seeing the show.

FORMER AMES GIRL APPOINTED TO GOVERNMENT OFFICE

Orena Bourland, a graduate of Iowa United States bureau of public health.

Miss Bourland took the civil service examination, and her appointment as signed her as technical assistant in bacteriology in the government office at Cincinnati, O., under J. K. Hoskin, officer in charge of stream pollution for the government. Miss Bourland has been employed since graduation in the Purity Biological laboratory at Sioux City under Dr. J. W. Hardeman, former director of the University of Iowa State College; also in the Ft. Dodge Serum company as assistant technician.

ELECTED HOME DEMONSTRATION AGENT IN CLAY COUNTY

Eve Whitfield '18 has been elected home demonstration agent in Clay county and assumed her new duties June 1, succeeding Ruth English '18 who resigned some time ago. Miss Whitfield has been teaching home economics in the high school at Cherokee Lake during the past year, and before that, taught in southwestern, Iowa. She will have her headquarters at Spencer.

TEACHING AT ODEBOLT

Glady Watson H. Ec.'23 was on the campus the week end of June 1. She will return to her teaching position at Odebolt, next year. Miss Watson while attending Iowa State College was president of Y. W. C. A., as well as a member of Mortar board, Sophomore Council, and Junior Advisory Board.

Florence (Watkins) Johnston '16 is now living near Phoenix, Arizona, where her husband is in charge of an 80-acre orange orchard. He is also working with an experimental orchard which will contain several hundred varieties of fruits and berries.

DIETITIAN IN HENRY FORD HOSPITAL

Ennice Longworth, H. Ec. '23, is with the Henry Ford hospital in Detroit, Mich., this year. She has the position of supervising dietitian of the private wards. Miss Longworth was at Santa Barbara, California last year where she completed her training at the Potter metabolic clinic.

FRENCH GIRL TO TEACH IN WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Lucy Larrouy, an exchange student from France, who was graduated from Iowa State College this spring, will teach French in a woman's college in Florida next year. Previous to her two years in the Industrial Science division at Ames, she attended school in France.

TAKE CHARGE OF UNIVERSITY CLUB DINING ROOM

Rose Nicholson '22, after visiting on the campus a few days this spring, left for Peoria, Illinois, to take charge of the University Club Dining Room. Miss Nicholson has been teaching the past year at Roanoke, Illinois.

Miss Ruth O'Brien, one of the leading textile chemists in the country, and who has been connected with the chemistry department at Iowa State College for several years, left April 15 for Washington, D.C., where she will do research work in the government laboratories.

NEW PHI KAPPA INITIATES

Phi Kappa Phi, national scholastic fraternity announces the election of five girls from the home economics division. They were Margarette Conner, Helen Elizabeth Cary, Grace Gray Dewey, Helen Herr, Hazel M. Fullreide.

Those chosen from the faculty were: Dean Anna E. Richardson, Grace Dewey, Eloise Davison and Mary S. Lyle.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

The engagement of Mildred Sears '18 and LeRoy Cromwell '18, both of Omaha, has been announced. Mr. Cromwell is employed by Douglas county as a highway engineer with headquarters in Omaha.

ANNA GERTRUDE RIGGS MARRIED

Miss Anna Gertrude Riggs, a graduate of 1920, was married on June 12 to Mr. W. M. Vernon at her home in Muscatine, Iowa. Mrs. Vernon has been for the past year an instructor in Foods in the Home Economics Division of Iowa State College. Mr. Vernon is an instructor in Poultry Husbandry. They are now at home at the Cranford Apartments, Ames, Iowa.

Irene Haynes '23 has been teaching at Oskaloosa during the past year. She has had charge of the costumes for the dramatic work, and planned all the costumes for the May Fete there.

The first three prizes in the Health Play Contest, conducted by the Iowa Creamery Association, were awarded Ames seniors. The first prize went to Evelth Peterson, the second to Velma Craig and the third to Ethel Rayness. "The Purple Knight," written by Ethel Haynes, will be presented at the Iowa State Fair.

Annette Adams, student representative from the Iowa State College W.A.A., and Miss Matilda Shelby, instructor in Physical Education, attended the National Athletic Conference for American College Women in Berkeley, California, April 11-18. Two hundred girls, representing fifty-seven schools, were present at the conference.

On April 16th, two hundred brightly colored Japanese parasols, carried by as many senior girls of Iowa State College appeared upon the campus. The girls met on Central steps at 7 o'clock and sang as classes gathered. We may recognize the senior girls of Home Economics and Industrial Science by their parasols as we recognize the senior Agricultural students by their cans and the Civil Engineers by their khaki jackets. It is hoped that this will become a custom in future years.
THE IOWA HOMEMAKER

"A Magazine For Homemakers From a Homemakers' School"

VOL. IV   JUNE-JULY, 1924 No. 3-4

Published by the Home Economics Students of Iowa State College, Ames, Iowa. Price, $1.50 per year. Advertising rates on application

Entered as second-class matter at the post office, Ames, Iowa

PUBLICATION BOARD—Dean Anna E. Richardson, Prof. F. W. Beckman, Miss Florence Busse, Josephine Wylie, Jeanette Beyer, Reva Pierce, Morcie Carley.

EDITORIAL STAFF—Gertrude Murray, Editor; Edna Armstrong, Associate Editor; Art Editor, Marie Rayness. Elizabeth Peterson, Viola Jammer, Grace Heidbreder, Barbara Dewell, Helen Brennan, Edna Carlson, Edna Armstrong, Rhea Pern Shull, Jeanette Beyer, Katherine Holden, Beulah Rogers, Agnes Sorenson, Evelyn Smith.

BUSINESS STAFF—Reva Pierce, Manager; Agnes Noble, Lucille Brickner, Dorothy Smith, Katherine Schwarz, Mable Grimes, Helen Beymer, Beulah Whirl, Harriet Parker, Pauline Hack, Gertrude McArthur, Katherine McCormary, Alice Bowie, Dorothy Olson.

CIRCULATION STAFF—Mercie Carley, Manager; Marie Plath, Lucille Barta, Mildred Krebs, Marian Wilson, Ona Angell, Myrtle Kerr, Laura Faber, Georgia Rae Easter, Mary Hammstrom, Genevieve Widner, Esther Clark, Juliette Wylie, Sarah Dolan, Myrtle Westenberg, Gladys Zismer, Ethel Butcher, Helen Beymer, Myrne Hendrix, Marion Miller, Emma Fife, Ruth Grimes, Gladys Ramey, Onica Pratt, Ilene Hackett, Edythe Morgan, Laura Bublitz.

For the new cover which appears on this month’s magazine, we are indebted to Rhea Fern Schultz. We wish to take this opportunity to thank her for her interest, time and work.

We wish also to express our appreciation for the attractive covers submitted by Bernadine Bundy, Harriet Allen and Verna Pierce. The interest shown in this work stimulates better products and is a great satisfaction to us.

SEE US AT THE FAIR

Don’t fail to visit the Homemaker at the Iowa State Fair. We will have a booth where you can get acquainted with the magazine and incidentally with us. Come and tell us what you would like to see the Homemaker be and do.

THE VALUE OF AN EDUCATION

June has passed and with it commencement! Hundreds, yes thousands of boys and girls, men and women have finished with all the schooling which they will ever have.

As they look back upon their education, what will be their reaction? It is an accepted fact that our experiences appear more pleasant viewed in the past. These experiences appear more pleasant viewed in the past. These things come to know that after supper no one will have to go into the hot kitchen to wash the dishes. Simple, easily prepared meals may be well balanced and nutritious as well.

If the washing and ironing are done at home, make these tasks as simple as possible. Towels and sheets, dried on still days, need not be ironed. No one will object, even if you don’t consider this the best form of housekeeping. If the children understand they may be more careful of their clothing to keep it clean as long as possible. Crepe clothing, used whenever possible, means a proportionate decrease in amount of ironing necessary.

Oh, there are endless ways of vacationing at home. An occasional “slump” in the performance of household duties will not annoy or inconvenience anyone. Try it on your family!

IOWA HOMEMAKER AND BIRTHDAY PARTY

On Wednesday evening, May 28th, the Iowa Homemaker celebrated its third birthday with a dinner in the Home Economics Tea Room.

From all appearances it might well be thought that the child is a healthy, thriving youngster for more than fifty people were present at the dinner. These were representatives of all three staffs, editorial, circulation and business and interested faculty members.

An interesting feature of the dinner was place cards of the names set in type.

Miss Florence E. Busse, who has helped and been so willing to help since our magazine was first established served as toastmistress, cleverly introducing Dean Anna E. Richardson, Prof. F. W. Beckman and the new and retiring editors, business managers and circulation managers.

Miss Busse closed the program with the following original poem:

TO THE HOMEMAKER

Fond reverie of girls
Who longed to share with those at home,
Inspirations learned from happy books
And of the kettle’s bubbling secret.
Or with those who like they
In nearby halls,
Or in distant lands,
Joyed in the search for glorious truth.
Favored are you who see the vista clear
And dedicate the store of your years of building strong.
The great foundation of the home.

—Florence E. Busse.