Student News
Fred E. Husmann was born at Keosauqua, Iowa in 1917. After his family moved to Illinois in 1924, he attended schools at Charleston and Tallula where he graduated from high school in 1935. He had planned to start his veterinary training in 1936, but accepted a job in Chicago instead. In 1938 he graduated from Chicago Technical School in air conditioning.

Fred was in the United States Army from 1942 until 1944 when he was discharged as first lieutenant in an armored division. Following his discharge he worked for the War Department for two years as a civilian.

In 1947 he began his veterinary training at Iowa State College and is now a member of the senior class.

Fred was president of the voting body of Memorial Lutheran Church in 1949, president of the freshman veterinary class for the first term, a Veishea worker three years, chairman of the foods committee for the Veterinary Homecoming in 1949 and 1950, chairman of the all-veterinary spring picnic in 1951, a member of the Publications Board of the Iowa State College Veterinarian for two terms. At present he is president of the Student Chapter of the A.V.M.A. and a member of the Veishea Central Selection Committee for 1952 Veishea.

He spent last summer at Camp Point, Ill., where he worked with Dr. H. W. Faulkner. His post-graduate plans include establishment of a practice at Augusta, Illinois.

Fred and Mrs. Husmann and their two children live at 206 Pammel Court.
