Honoraries

Spring quarter always brings new laurels to our division and its members. Phi Kappa Phi selected Paul Nees, Clarence Ching and Robert Cowger to its membership. This honorary also selects high ranking graduate students and faculty members each year for membership. Chosen this year was Dr. L. E. Barnes from the Veterinary Division.

Alpha Zeta, national agriculture honorary, initiated Ron Goldsmith and Jim Creel. Its members are junior and seniors in agriculture and veterinary medicine who rank high in scholarship and have participated in campus activities.

The National Veterinary Medicine honorary, Phi Zeta, elected the following men to its membership: Owen Nelson, James Yoder, Robert Van Ryzin, Ward Richter, William Lowry, Alfred Loehrl, John Conley, Eugene McGhee, Martin Vandermaaten, James Shaw, Phillip Pearson, Richard Nelson, Alfred Evenson, Tom Wetzell, and Ron Goldsmith. H. H. Kildee, Dean Emeritus of Agriculture, was elected as an honorary member.
