The Faded Image

James Wickliff*
The Faded Image

James Wickliff

Abstract

Like childbirth, these clever creations Need much strength of solitude, A little agony of rent energy, And as great a promise...
The Faded Image

by James Wickliff

Like childbirth, these clever creations
Need much strength of solitude,
A little agony
of rent energy,
And as great a promise.
But, by rights, they are a less intense process,
For man cannot be viewed
But by man
seeing himself
in pools of reflections.