Image

James Wickliff*

*Iowa State College

Copyright ©1961 by the authors. Sketch is produced by The Berkeley Electronic Press (bepress).
http://lib.dr.iastate.edu/sketch
Image

James Wickliff

Abstract

The day, a gray doe in the dawn,...
The day, a gray doe in the dawn,
Moved quietly into the brown woods—
Sensed each shadow and nosed the wind,
Then found the sun and bedded down.

Gulls burned black in the red of the setting sun screamed overhead,
turned white
against the night,
and were gone.