Good Neighbor Policy

by Marie E. Grimmius

Child Development, Junior

Suspended by intent face down in “the sun’s up” pillow quietly surrounded by the big white playground one arm still holding his playmate not having known how to leave

He stirs slightly, like a snowflake in a dancing wind

And she, being like the air fills the spaces of the pattern with a gentle lifting motion

The covering snowflake drifts
drops melts
and becomes part of her life.
