A Congratulatory Gift for You:
The Iowa State
1968 Veterinary Graduate

You may have heard a classmate mention how Fromm Laboratories, Inc. salutes the graduating veterinarian. A Fromm representative will call at your school to present a gold-plated caduceus pin to each member of the class. He will also explain how the veterinarian entering practice may receive a complimentary selection of Fromm products.

You have met a difficult challenge in earning your Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degree. This program is our way of recognizing such an accomplishment. In past years, hundreds of graduating veterinarians have acknowledged this tribute. We are pleased to continue our program for the class of 1967.

We wish you continued success in the veterinary profession.

Freshman Veishea Display
"Yesterday, Heartbeat for Tomorrow," a display of the cardiovascular system, is this year's freshman Veishea display. The display will include both fresh specimens of the circulatory system and explanatory diagrams as well as oral dissertations by freshman veterinary students explaining the anatomy of the cardiovascular system of domestic animals. The embryology, histology, and gross aspects of the system will be presented. Special areas of emphasis will be placed on the special anatomy and innervation of the heart, pulmonary circulation, and the circulation to special areas including the digestive and urogenital systems.

Junior Class Trip
The juniors of the class of 1969 made the annual sojourn which has come to be one of the high points of the junior year in Veterinary Medicine. Traveling in two chartered buses, the group of sixty students visited Eli Lilly and Pittman-Moore drug companies in Indianapolis, Indiana, and the Upjohn Company in Kalamazoo, Michigan. Part of the group also had the opportunity to visit the Purdue College of Veterinary Medicine in Lafayette, Indiana. A short tour of Lakeshore Animal Hospital in Chicago provided the finale for the trip.
