Oakdale Heaven

* Dedicated to an ax killer in Oakdale Maximum Security Medical Facility, Oakdale, Iowa

* by Greg Lone, English Junior

Haunts me haunts the painstriking
memories of animal pains and mental wringing psychic dum-dum bullets minds as sponges used in mop-up operations by clinical killers wrapped up in vacuums tidying their square world putting the sponges through a wetdrug ruled gambit from within blasted, barely damp, sheared cement walls that blocked keep their little seams straight

I have seen the young boys used, eaten
little tiger-bait gripped in thick tensions from men cruel from other men cruel
