Student-Faculty News
Congratulation, to Drs. Robert Glock and David Graham, Department of Veterinary Pathology, who have successfully completed the examinations and are now accorded Diplomate status in the American College of Veterinary Pathologists.

Congratulations also to Dr. Kenneth Platt, Department of Veterinary Microbiology and Preventive Medicine, who has been accorded Diplomate status in the American College of Veterinary Microbiologists.

Malcolm Crump, Associate Professor in Veterinary Anatomy, Pharmacology and Physiology, for research in intestinal mineral absorption at Aberdeen, Scotland, or participation in a comparative gastroenterology training program at Cornell.

Richard F. Ross, Professor, Veterinary Microbiology and Preventive Medicine, for research in swine arthritis at the Institut für Mikrobiologie, Hannover, Germany.

William VanMeter, Associate Professor in Veterinary Anatomy, Pharmacology and Physiology, for research on the central nervous system of mammals at the cellular level for several laboratories in Canada and the National Institute for Mental Health, Washington, D.C.

Class of '76

Carol Kurtyka is engaged to Chuck Mahrt ('77).

Greg and Lynn Ekdale are the proud parents of a boy, John Warren, born December 10, 1974.

Dick and Gwen Porter are the proud parents of a boy, Phillip Richard, born January 23, 1975.

Class of '77

Charles Martin is engaged to Carol Kurtyka ('76).

Curt and Barb Crane are the proud parents of a girl, Sara, born December 5, 1974.

Class of '78

Mark and Leann Daggy are the proud parents of a boy, Matthew Daniel, born October 11, 1974.

Jack Root married Margaret Brown on December 28, 1974.

Larry Letner is engaged to Lori Redden.