The Wyeth Boy

by
M. J. Scheck

English 4

in the
wyeth
a boy
sat in the long
weeds
clutching
the stillness
in his hands.

the stillness could not remain
untouched
by the mysterious
frost that muted the
weed
and he thought of school that started next fall and
slanted his eyes to the right and
clutched
stillness
ever so
closer.
