Absolution

Molly McDonald

Plaster casted praying mantis

I beg forgiveness

I had no business

Reaching up into the rafters

I bumped your body

And it shattered

Molly McDonald is a senior in animal ecology, English, and religious studies. In a song about her, the Bouncing Souls commented “You’re so rad, more rad than my dad, if you were a fabric you’d be plaid.” Variation in dad radness notwithstanding, that pretty much sums it up.
