Staff Bios

Sketch*
Poetry Editor
Riley Dawson

Poetry Jury Board
Kallie Yearick
Kendra Dickinson

Visuals Editor
Becca Hildebrand

Visuals Jury Board
Syamim Hashim
Alli Kolick
Jen Paul
Kendra Dickinson
Maggie McGinity

Website Designer
Jillian Tanner

STAFF BIOS

Kallie Yearick is a freshman majoring in Psychology. In addition to working on Sketch she participates in Cantamus choir, CRU, and Freshman Council. She enjoys shopping, yoga, playing with her cats, and Disney movies.

Megan Culp is in her first semester working on Sketch, and is excited to continue through her college career! She is currently an English Literary Studies major and is strongly considering declaring a double major in Technical Communications and a minor in Entrepreneurial Studies.

Kendra Dickinson is a sophomore transfer student with an accounting major and Spanish minor. I’ve taken many art courses among my business and language courses and love many forms of art including drawing, photography, poetry, and music.

Greta Mugge is a senior in English Literature with a minor in Psychology. She is a Star Wars and Beastie Boys enthusiast and is also the editor of Uhuru, Iowa State's cultural magazine. She hopes to have a career as a magazine or book editor before the internet completely takes over the world.

Matt Cooper is a senior finishing his degrees in Marketing and English Literary Studies. In his free-time he enjoys working on his own creative fiction pieces and hopes to refine his writing skills in grad school after completing his undergrad coursework. Out of principle, he believes people shouldn’t wear matching socks.

Interested in joining our staff?
Contact sketcheditors@iastate.edu.
Riley L. Dawson in a double major in Literary Studies and Linguistics who plans to eventually attain a doctorate in the former. She hopes that you enjoy reading Sketch as much as she does!

Becca Hildebrand is a senior in graphic design from Cedar Rapids, IA. She enjoys creative writing, playing the flute, and making people laugh.

Kendra Kavan is a December 2010 grad in English: RPC and Technical Communication, who is currently employing her communication skills as a financial customer service specialist before joining Teach For America in June 2011. She's looking forward to moving to Oklahoma to teach high school science and hopes to someday publish some pieces on the experience!

Natasha Mulvaney is a graduating senior in English with a minor in women's studies.

Arun Sethuraman is a graduate student in bioinformatics and enjoys Rushdie, Atwood, Camus, Pink Floyd, random dreams and tea.

Caitlin Toppler is a senior majoring in English education with a minor in Chinese and teaching endorsements in ESL and foreign language instruction. She plans to teach at the high school level after graduating.

Stephanie Swenson is an English major at Iowa State with a love of books, music, fashion, coffee, and travel.

Nishant Garg is an engineer juggling between art and science. Writing to him is an act of venting out artistic light, to push out the scientific darkness that surrounds him most of the time.

Ashley Halverson is currently a sophomore studying English Literature and Technical Communications. Her dream is to one day become an editor at a publishing house and perform the similar tasks that she did for Sketch. She enjoys reading stories written by the creative minds of Iowa State students and looks forward to doing it again.

Bekah Hosford is a junior majoring in English literature and minoring in history and technical communications. She enjoys reading, taking pictures, and going on crazy adventures. She hopes you enjoy this edition of Sketch.

Jen Paul is in her second year at ISU and is from Midland, MI. She plans on majoring in English Literature while minoring in German and Journalism. She is filled with random trivia and enjoys photography, reading virtually anything, and writing.

Maggie McGinity is a freshman in Music and English from Ottumwa, Iowa. She is excited to be a part of this volume of Sketch.